11th Legislative Session
Budget Hearing

April 24, 1975

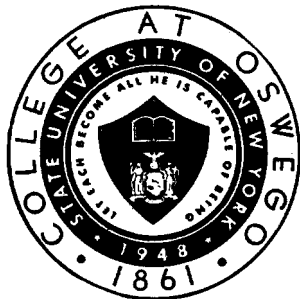

Bill 8

Be it enacted the BSU budget be amended as follows:

4,000 be taken from budget line 4 entitled entertainment and transferred to the PPB Concert account; to be spent in the following manner.

1. The $4,000 will be matched by the PPB and used to pay for a concert of BSU's choice.
2. Any income obtained from the concert will go to PPB's concert income account.
3. The top account for the concert will not exceed the cost of $6,500, including agent's fees.
4. If no agreement is made between PPB and BSU on booking said concert the $4,000 shall return to BSU's entertainment account.
5. In the case that no such agreement is made it shall be BSU's responsibility to report to the Senate on the breakdown of communication.
6. In the case that BSU reports such a communication breakdown, the student/academic affairs committee will investigate the matter and how to alleviate the problem.
7. By February 1st, PPB and BSU will collectively present a proposal to the Senate to guarantee satisfactory Minority Programing within PPB for the future

Bill 18

WHEREAS: It is necessary for the Senate to be able to speak to a representative of a group requesting funding in order to allocate money fairly and intelligently,
WHEREAS: Attendance to budget hearing has been poor on the part of some groups requesting funding,
WHEREAS: Many SA funded groups are either un or misinformed of proper Accounting and Finance Procedures, and become dissatisfied with SA,

Be it enacted by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego that:

When requesting funding from the Program or Contingency Fund, all clubs or organizations must have a representative present at the Senate hearing at the time their budget comes to the floor for consideration, in order to be funded. This policy may be overruled only with a 2/3 vote of the Senate.

It shall be the Finance Committee's responsibility to inform the groups concerned of this policy as they meet with each group.

If a club or organization is not present at the first time at which the bill comes to the floor, or within 2 Senate meetings following, the bill will not be considered.

Be it further enacted that: The Senate clerk will distribute a "fact sheet" to representatives of groups funded, directly after the Senate vote at the meeting. This "fact sheet" will concern accounting and finance procedures, etc.

Bill 55

Be it enacted by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego that, SA be allowed to allocate monies originally in their previous budget in order to honor the debts incurred by Great Laker Review this fall semester, prior to this bill becoming law:

Also the sum of $ 5,475.75 be allocated to the Great Laker Review, to be broken down as follows:

1. Publication	$ 4,918.00
2. Public Relations	164.00
3. Transportation	93.75
4. Postage	100.00
5. Office Supplies	100.00
6. Poetry Readings	0.00
7. Renumerations	0.00
8. Telephone	100.00

Total $ 5,475.75

Recommended by the Finance Committee

Rational: This budget remains the same. The only reason why the Great Laker Review is coming to the Senate floor again, is because up to last week the Review did not have a Constitution on file, thus making the above mentioned organization an illegal one.

Proposal to respond to Senate Bill #8 (section #7) from 1974-75

In order to better meet the needs of the Third World members of the campus of State University of New York, College of Oswego, the following proposal is submitted:

I. Structural Change

Program Policy Board recommends that an additional committee be added to the present composition of this organization known as the Third World Committee.

A. The purposes of this committee shall be to insure:

1. programming of benefit to Third World students of this campus in the areas of film, cultural activities, video, entertainment and any other such areas that may be deemed appropriate by this board.
2. minority representation in all programming areas of PPB.
3. increased communication between the Third World organizations and PPB.
4. greater awareness and understanding on the part of the campus community toward the needs and contributions of Third World peoples.

B. Membership

1. The Third World committee shall be open to members from B.S.U., N.A.B., and other Third World students.
(LSA)
2. The committee shall consist of 10 members to be chosen by 5 representatives of the Third World Coalition, a representative from each of PPB's five programming committees, and the 4 reg.S.A. representatives within the regular selection process time framework.

Student Association

STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
OSWEGO, NEW YORK 13126

3. In order to allow for this new committee on the board, a request is made to increase the maximum membership limit from 30 to 35 members.

C. Responsibilities

1. to actively serve as a member involved in total Board decisions and concerns.
2. to plan programs and special activities which meet the needs of the Third World campus community.
3. two members from the Third World committee shall additionally be members of the existing program committees of the Board to provide resources for program decisions and assist in the implementation of on-going activities planned by that committee.
4. to insure that existing program committees will work cohesively with the Third World committee, each existing committee will assist the Third World committee in its programming endeavors.

D. Budget

1. It has been determined that the Third World committee will need funding to carry out its responsibilities.

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego that:

Whereas the city of new York is on the verge of bankruptcy and the implications of this towards the State of New York may lead to the same situation;

Whereas if the State of New York is jeopardized as such it will deterently affect all agencies of the State including the State University of New York to such a degree that our very existence is threatened.

Therefore, be it reolved that the Board of Trustees of the State University of New York use everything in its power to support in alleviating their financial crisis.

Be it further resoved in view of the relationship between New York City's fiscal crisis, the State of New York, and the StatehUniversity of New York that in return the College Council, Administration, faculty and student of the State University College at Oswego merge to fight any further cutbacks at Oswego that would affect the quality of our education.

Be it resolved by the Student Association of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego that:

Whereas the campus shuttle bus is a major mode of on campus student transportation, and is relied upon by students at S.U.C.O. for said transportation; and

Whereas the policy of picking up students only at designated bus stops has replaced the practice of always stopping for a student; and

Whereas this policy is not adequately serving the colleges' transportation needs, as there are only seven bus stops on the entire campus;

Be it resolved of the Senate of the Student Association of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego,

I. That the Student Association express disfavor of the present bus stop policy, and actively support a rescission of the present policy and a return to the practice of making stops for students at all times and places.

Be it resolved by the Student Association of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego that:

Whereas: 896 students participated in last year's sacrifice meal.
Whereas: There are 4-500 million hungry people in the world, 14, million of which are Americans. The Committee on Human Needs, a member of the S.A. funded Center for Human Development, recognizes a desperate need for a public consciousness concerning world hunger.

Therefore be it resolved that S.A. supports a sacrifice meal, the proceeds of which will be sent to the national, Bread for the World.
