Resolution #1

- WHEREAS, the Student Association has long been in need of a conference room; and
- WHEREAS, the conference room could not be considered complete without an official conference room mascot; and
- WHEREAS, the senate special ad hoc Committee on Mascot Procurement has recently obtained a goldfish to act in the capacity of official senate conference room mascot; therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York College at Oswego that the goldfish be herein referred to as "Otis".

Be it further resolved that referring to the goldfish in any other manner than "Otis" (i.e. "Goldy" or "Fishy Fishy") will be cause for a severe and vociferous chastising upon the perpetrator by the chair of the ad hoc Mascot Procurement Committee.

Resolution #3

- WHEREAS, the weather has finally started to improve in Oswego and Spring has arrived; and
- WHEREAS, spring brings the return of softball; and
- WHEREAS, WTOP has challenged the Student Association, as well as the Oswegonian and WNYO to a round-robin softball tournament; and
- WHEREAS, round-robin games are tentatively slated for Saturday and Sunday, April 24 and 25, with a championship game scheduled for Sunday, May 2; and
- WHEREAS, participating in this event will be a great ice-breaker for new senators to meet at; and
- WHEREAS, softball is fun; and
- WHEREAS, the Senate does not want to look like a bunch of wimps and back down from this challenge; therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York College at Oswego that the Senate accepts this challenge and will field a team for this round-robin softball tournament with the Media Center.

Be it further resolved that the President of the Senate be in charge of recruiting players for this tournament.

Be it finally resolved that the Senate believes it will crush the Media Center and win the tournament.

- WHEREAS, in the past, the Student Association had taken steps to communicate with and involve students not regularly associated with SA, and
- WHEREAS, the "senate tour" where weekly meetings were scheduled at various residence halls was one such attempt to reach students; and
- WHEREAS, despite low attendance in the past, this traveling forum has the potential to become a vital link between SA and student concerns; and
- WHEREAS, with increased and improved advertising, SA could increase meeting attendance significantly; and
- WHEREAS, the new administration has already taken steps to narrow the gap and improve SA/student communication lines; therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York College at Oswego that Senate fully support this initiative and encourage the President of Senate to move forward and resume the "Senate Tour."

Be it further resolved that Senate shall encourage all attempts to increase advertising of the tour and all attempts to improve communications in general.

Resolution #15 Parking Incentives for College Employees

- Whereas, the Student Association provides a source of free off campus transportation to all off campus students, and
- Whereas, this cuts down on the demand for parking among students by offering an alternative to driving, and
- Whereas, the Student Association is about to start a campaign to inform people of their options as far as parking options are concerned: half price parking at Romney, Free Centro off campus for off campus students, and
- Whereas, these incentives not to drive are not available to Employees of this school, and
- Whereas, if, both the Student Association and the College Administration work together on these tasks, they could lessen the problem, therefore:

Be it resolved that the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York College at Oswego would like to see the College Administration offer the same parking incentives to college employees that the Student Association already offers to students.

Be it further resolved that the Senate would like to work with the college to disseminate information about the shuttle system and other information that will make coming to and from the campus less of a hassle.

Resolution #27 Supreme Gratitude

- WHEREAS, the Supreme Court under Darryl Hillery took on the task of a much needed review of Student Association organization and club constitutions, and
- WHEREAS, Darryl Hillery demonstrated flexibility in his office when a student requested a court hearing take place seven days before schedule, and
- WHEREAS, Darryl Hillery has reinvigorated and increased the respect for the judicial branch of government, and
- WHEREAS, the Student Association may not ever have another Chief Justice with the dance floor "rump shakin'" abilities of Darryl Hillery; therefore:

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York College at Oswego that Darryl Hillery know that students admire and respect his abilities.

Be it further resolved that Darryl Hillery know that students are grateful for for the wisdom he exhibited as Chief Justice of our Supreme Court.

Be it finally resolved that a thorough review of SA constitutions be hereafter known as a Hillery Review as a reminder of the standard set forth by the Supreme Court under Chief Justice Darryl Hillery.

Resolution #28 To Honor Gerard Serlin

WHEREAS, the Association's ability to conduct an unbiased investigation into Enciso's qualifications for the SA Presidency would have been severely impaired without the Office of the Advocate General, and

WHEREAS, his frequent name misspellings (Endwin? Was that a hint?) will be fondly remembered for some time to come, and

WHEREAS, the service Gerard Serlin has provided for students has made the Advocate General known as possibly the best friend a troubled student ever had, and

WHEREAS, the business of Advocate General demands a strong sense of justice from a person, and

WHEREAS, Gerard Serlin has served in this capacity position with distinction, therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York College at Oswego that Gerard Serlin be hereafter recognized as an Advocate General Emeritus for the fine standard he did set forth for those who would follow and

Be it further resolved that the Charter of the Advocate General be hereafter known as the Serlin Charter in recognition of his noteworthy example.
