Senate
6th Legislative Session
2nd Senate Meeting

May 14, 1970

Bill # 1

Introduced by Burt Naznitsky

Be it enacted of the Student Association Senate of the State University College at Oswego that:

No contracts may be signed for the Student Association without prior approval of the Student Association Senate. These contracts are to be signed by the S.A. President or his designated representative and the Student Association Treasurer.

Persons signing the Student Association's name to any contract without the approval shall be held liable for that contract.

Senate approval of a Budget item will be considered "prior approval" (i.e. if the Senate passed fourteen baseball games per season they need not pass again on who is played (what team) or what date).
