NEWS FROM PERSONNEL:

The Music Library will soon say goodbye to Andy Toulas. Andy has resigned his position, effective December 15, in order to accept another position in New York City.

Technical Services will also miss Kyungmi Lee, who has resigned effective December 14.

We wish Andy and Mimi all the best in their new endeavors.

(Message from Gisele)
Greetings,

I am writing to inform you that Music Library staff member Andrew Toulas has accepted a new position as Music Librarian for the Lincoln Center Performing Arts Library, effective December 18, 2006. While Andrew's title here is "Instructional Support Technician/Senior Copy Cataloger," he has performed well beyond this title during his 2 1/2 years here at Stony Brook. From February to August of 2005 he served as Acting Head of the Music Library. He has carried out a wide variety of responsibilities in the areas of circulation, acquisitions, reserves and cataloging. With our current vacancy of an Audio Technician, Andrew took on the added duty of digitizing music selections for course reserves. His development and installation of a server and computer network for course reserves in our Listening Area is a project of which he should be very proud. We hope his new position will offer him new and exciting opportunities and wish him the very best.

FRIENDLY REMINDER:

Thursday, Nov. 30 is the last day for you to add to the contribution we will give to charities of Dennis's father. Afterwards, sign the card in Director's Office. Please see Maryanne or Liz by midday if possible.
