TRIBUTE TO 9/11:

1) The Library will be remembering the events of last September 11th. Flowering violets with a red/white/blue theme including cards with "We will never forget 9/11/01" are being put together by James Cress Florist. They will be made available for the following service areas and can be picked up in the Directors Office on Sept. 10 at noon. Thank you.

2) Tribute to a fallen hero (From David Weiner)

Captain Thomas C. Moody, long-time Stony Brook resident and NYC Firefighter, was killed in the line of duty on 9/11/01. As a tribute to Tom and his family, there is an effort underway to create a memorial in his honor, at Oxhead Road Park, which will include a large landscaped rock with a sign welcoming people to "The Home of the Thomas C. Moody Memorial Ballfield." Funds are needed to help pay for a plaque, the sign and landscaping ($7,000). Any remaining funds will be presented to Tom's FDNY Hazardous Materials Unit (every member of Tom's squad died that day).

Tom was also a softball teammate of mine for 14 years and he is dearly missed. If you would like to offer a contribution for Tom's memorial, it would be greatly appreciated.

I will be collecting any donations until 9/20/02.

Thank you very much. David Weiner

TRAVEL UPDATE:

Information has been included in the Campus Announcements for this week. Briefly, it states that:

1) non-refundable tickets must be used for flights booked through Austin Travel. If you already have a refundable ticket then notify Austin Travel, who can make changes before departure,

2) if you have an e-ticket and request a paper ticket there is an additional charge per ticket,

3) USAirway customers with non-refundable tickets will not be allowed stand-by for alternate flights. American Airlines customers will be allowed stand-by for a charge of $100.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS:

Chancellor's/President's Award for Excellence in Librarianship is up for nominations. The deadline is November 18. Nomination materials are at the following site: www.stonybrook.edu/pres.
