

To All Faculty & Staff

Colleagues,

The Provost's Lecture Series continues tomorrow with a talk by one of our own Stony Brook faculty members, Dr. Arthur Stone.

Arthur Stone is Distinguished Professor and Vice Chairman of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences. He has helped to develop the Ecological Momentary Assessment, a technique for monitoring individuals in their natural environments, and applied behavioral medicine interventions.

Dr. Stone will speak on: "How Do We Remember Recent Experiences? Insights Gained from Real-time, Computerized Assessments of Medical Outcomes," Tuesday, February 21st at 4:00 p.m. in Lecture Hall 1 of the Wang Center.

Please pass along this information to any students or community members you feel may be interested in attending.

- Robert McGrath, Provost & Executive Vice President of Academic Affairs
