“WRITERS SPEAK” CONTINUES
WITH JULES FEIFFER

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y., October 2, 2009 — Provocative and entertaining “Writers Speak” talks continue on October 14 at Stony Brook Southampton with famed humorist and faculty member Jules Feiffer.

The events are part of Southampton’s MFA in Writing and Literature program and its popular series of literary events, which take place on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. in Duke Lecture Hall and are free and open to the public. For further information, call 631-632-5030.

Feiffer is a cartoonist, playwright, and screenwriter. His Pulitzer-winning and internationally syndicated cartoon ran for 42 years in the Village Voice. His sensibility permeates a wide range of creative work: from his Obie Award-winning play Little Murders (a prophetic vision of random urban violence), to his screenplay for Carnal Knowledge (a controversial examination of the sex wars), to his Oscar-winning anti-military short subject animation, Munro, to his award-winning children’s book, The Man in the Ceiling.
