Subject Provost's Lecture: Lessons for Iraq

Colleagues,

The next event in the Provost's Lecture Series is a timely one indeed. On Thursday, September 25th, our own Elizabeth Stone will speak on "Ancient Mesopotamia: Lessons for the Future of Iraq from its Distant Past." Professor Stone is a member of Stony Brook's Department of Anthropology and also participated in the team assembled by National Geographic to survey Iraq's archaeological sites.

Her lecture will be held in the main lecture hall of the Wang Center and will begin at 4:30 p.m.

Please pass this invitation along to any you feel may be interested in attending.

Thank you,
Robert McGrath, Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs
