

Welcome Wagon- Fall 2007

Dear Colleagues and SBU Student Leaders

The Division of Campus Residence offers students the leadership opportunity to help make Opening Weekend for new resident students a welcoming and inviting day. Welcome Wagon has become a growing tradition and is a part of move in day that many returning students look forward to as a way to interact with new students, contribute to the endless tasks required to make check-in run smoothly and to simply be part of the excitement of the back-to-school spirit.

In exchange for arriving back to campus a few days early, Welcome Wagon Volunteers can either help one on of 2 days

- Check-in Day- Saturday, September 1st, 2007- where WW volunteers help First Year students move their belongings into their residence hall room.
- Undergraduate College Day- September 2nd, 2007- This day WW volunteer will be helping the Quads facilitate fun activities for the First Year students

Please pass this on to any interested students. Welcome Wagon Flier 1.pub

For details refer to the link <http://studentaffairs.stonybrook.edu/fyre/>

If you have questions please feel free to contact me directly or this years Welcome Wagon Coordinator- Tim McClain @ timothy.mcclain@stonybrook.edu

“Education Beyond the Classroom”

Judy M. Jaquez
Tabler Quad Director
Major Programs & Wellness Committee, Chair
Department of Residential Programs
Division of Campus Residences
Stony Brook, NY 11790

(631) 632-6780