1. Time to renew library material

Faculty, Management Confidential, Emeritus and Professional staff who currently have borrowed library material due May 20, 2007, from the Main, Music and/or the Science/Engineering Library, are urged to renew at this time. The new due date will be December 23, 2008. Items already renewed 3 times, must be returned and may then be checked out again.

For information on how to renew online via STARS/OPAC, please go to the URL.

To renew in person, please present your ID card to service desk staff. It is not necessary to bring the material into the library in order to have them renewed. Overdue material can not be renewed. There are no phone renewals. Thank you.

03. Workshops/Courses/Training

1. Lawson Hospital Training for April and May

Lawson Requisition Training Classes will be held on a weekly basis, to see available dates please click on the calendar link: http://uhmc-iweb1.uhmc.sunysb.edu/lawsonsupport/index_files/Page909.htm.

All classes will be held in the Lawson Training Room #797, Level One, right next to the Blue Elevators. To schedule for any of these classes please contact Michele Thomas, Lawson Support Specialist, Ext. 4-7805. There will be 2 parts covered in these classes, the first half will cover ordering from any of the Storerooms in the Hospital and the second half will cover ordering from an outside Vendor. I suggest that all new hospital employees and/or if you are interested in taking a refresher course, please contact us to attend one of these classes.

Submitted by: Michele Thomas/UHMC

2. RefWorks: Buy, Sell or Hold?

Please join the West Campus librarians for an exploration and discussion of RefWorks, the web-based citation management tool currently on trial through the library. This is not an instruction or presentation; the library is providing a space for the university community to get together and help us evaluate the usefulness of the tool. Classroom A in the Melville Library will be open for an hour on the following dates for those who would like to investigate what the tool has to offer and share their thoughts.

Thursday, April 17, 10 am

Thursday, April 24, 10 am

Thursday, May 1, 10 am

You can also let us know what you think of RefWorks by email at Janet.clarke@stonybrook.edu.

For more information on RefWorks please see

6. Business Writing Basics

May 6, 2008 9:30am-12:30pm

Would you like to write memos that are clear, concise and worded appropriately? This workshop provides you with basic skills for tackling many writing tasks and communicating to your readers what they need to know. You'll streamline your writing process and save time by focusing on what to write instead of how to write it!

Topics Covered:

- Organizing your thoughts to generate content
- Rid your writing of "fluff"
- Using appropriate tone
- Basic grammar goofs

Target Audience: This class is intended for entry level HSC/West Campus employees only.

14. The Gender Illiminati: Facing and Overcoming Post-Stonewall Roadblocks to LGBTI Liberation, April 23, 6:30PM, Old Chem. 118

Will discuss hard-hitting issues which have been often ignored and sometimes actually covered up. These will include but not be limited to: religious/political extremism against LGBTI people, government-sponsored and conducted discrimination, psychiatric pathologization of trans/intersex/LGB people, the medicalization of transgender and intersex, nonconsensual medical interventions on intersex children, medical infiltration of the intersex movement by eugenicists and gender-based violence. Will then talk about where to go from knowing about such issues. This will include discussing options people can do in way of solutions. And since the personal is political there will be the opportunity to share personal stories of experiences as activists on these issues.
