1. Travel in Proximity of Official Station or Home

Effective September 1, 2008 the following change has been made to the State Travel reimbursement policy. When an employee is assigned to work at an alternate work location which is less than 35 miles from their home or official station, the employee is not considered to be in travel status, but rather is considered to be traveling in proximity of their official station. When travel is from an employee's home to an alternate work location or from an alternate work location to home, at a minimum, transportation expenses must be reimbursed at the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) mileage rate using the lesser of:

- 1) Mileage between the employee's home and the alternate work location, or
- 2) Mileage between the employee's official station and the alternate work location

Please see the Procurement website for further details.
