

Feb. 1, 2012

January Photos

In this issue's photo gallery, the academic year starts up again as guest artists teach, honored guests celebrate Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., midyear transfers and freshmen move in and art exhibitions open. If you would like to submit photos of timely activities for future issues, email pictures with a brief caption to proffice@oswego.edu.

ORI selects Benioff's 'City of Thieves'

"City of Thieves," a novel by acclaimed author and screenwriter David Benioff about two teens embarking on a near-impossible journey in Soviet Russia, is the Oswego Reading Initiative selection for 2012-13. Read more >

Early Start Program to encourage research

A new campus program will support new faculty on the path to grant writing and research in the summer before their employment contract traditionally begins. Read more >

Faculty can access mini-grants, larger awards

Higher grant levels and new awards highlight a campus effort to spur research and creative projects among faculty and students. Read more >

Grant aids project to catalog Native American artifacts

A $90,000 federal grant has helped advance a SUNY Oswego project to catalog and map the origins of at least 160,000 centuries-old Native American and other artifacts from archeological sites around the state.

Read more >

People in Action

In this issue, read about faculty publications and presentations as well as students interning in Washington, D.C., a visiting scholar and recognition for undergraduate research.

Read more >

Calendar Highlights

Wednesday, Feb. 1

• Talk by film director Christopher Monger

Thursday, February 2

Spotlight

Hard work and self-discipline hold the keys to David Titanic's balance of ice hockey and wellness management studies — in this issue's Spotlight.

Announcements

- SCAC fixes deadline for Quest proposals
- 'Lion King' choreographer, dance company coming to Waterman
- Aulos Ensemble to offer baroque music next week
- Athletics receives national community service award
- Science Today offerings to focus on women in field
- Ernst & Young sponsors series of talks on women and work
- Show choir to sing, dance to music of Lady Gaga, Adele, others
- Women's hockey to 'Pink the Rink' Friday
- 'Go Red for Women' to raise awareness, fight heart disease
- Students, seniors offer free help with income tax forms
- Indie Music Series to feature three acts
- Police Report

Web Resources

Research News
Artswego
Athletics
Student Blogs
Recent Milestones
Faculty Assembly
Employment Opportunities
SUNY Oswego Home Page

Action Items

Submit news
RSS news feeds

- Concert: Vocal Effect

Friday, Feb. 3

- Art exhibit opening: "Picto-Pals"
- Wear Red Day
- Pink the Rink game, fundraiser
- Indie concert: Larcenist and Brown Bird

Wednesday, Feb. 8

- Concert: Aulos Ensemble

Friday, Feb. 10

- Performance: Garth Fagan Dance Company

Saturday, Feb. 11

- Rice Creek Ramble

Monday, Feb. 13

- General faculty meeting, rescheduled
- Film screenings: "Made in Pakistan"
- Film talk by Ayesha Khan

Tuesday, Feb. 14

- Film: "Concrete, Steel and Paint"

For details, see SUNY Oswego Events.

Follow SUNY Oswego

