

March 14, 2012

February/March Photos

In this issue's photo gallery, springtime teases and snowboarding pleases, sportsmanship thrives and a cool concert jives, SUNY showcases and employers make cases, a fashion show strolls as men's hockey rolls — busy March is sublime, inspiring rhyme. If you would like to submit photos of timely activities for future issues, email pictures with a brief caption to proffice@oswego.edu.

Dykas to receive award for scholarly activity

Matthew J. Dykas, whose studies of family dynamics have advanced understanding of what it takes to raise emotionally healthier children, will receive the college Provost's Award for Scholarly and Creative Activity this year. Read more >

Next video shows evolution beyond 'normal'

college's sesquicentennial documentary. Watch video >

How did Oswego evolve from a teacher-training institution to a college with more than 100 majors? Learn how in "Becoming SUNY Oswego," the latest chapter of the

New sociology text seeks better connections

SUNY to honor five students with Chancellor's Award

The State University of New York will bestow its 2011-12 Chancellor's Award for Student Excellence on five SUNY Oswego students who have demonstrated academic success with significant accomplishments beyond the classroom. Read more >

People in Action

In this issue, read about award winners both national and local, a gerontology presentation, a White House briefing and the organizer of a statewide, multi-site conference on transfer students. Read more >

Calendar Highlights

March 12 to 16

- Spring break

March 16 and 17

- NCAA Division III men's ice hockey

For Tim Delaney, the name of his latest textbook — "Connecting Sociology to Our Lives" — describes his goal in writing it.

Read more >

La Manna's dual-orchestra piece to premiere

Juan F. La Manna's original composition "Three Pieces for Two Orchestras" will debut March 27 with the College-Community Orchestra and Oswego Middle School Orchestra. Read more >

150 years of fashions to highlight 'high tea'

Theatre students and community members will model popular fashions through the decades — starting with the 1860s — in a sesquicentennial event March 24 titled "A Fashionable High Tea."

Read more >

Spotlight

Kelly Collins balances three sports and a childhood education major while pursuing her teaching and coaching dreams — in this issue's Spotlight.

Announcements

- Cuarteto Latinoamericano to perform
- Dancer-presenter to detail evolution of gesture as storytelling
- Exhibition to link work of teacher candidates, mentors, students
- Painter, graphic designer to display artwork
- Candidates for degrees must apply to graduate
- Trustees schedule hearing
- Police Report

Web Resources

Research News
Artswego
Athletics
Student Blogs
Recent Milestones
Faculty Assembly
Employment Opportunities
SUNY Oswego Home Page

Action Items

Submit news
RSS news feeds

championship

Monday, March 19

- Dance recital: Del Sarte

Wednesday, March 21

- Film: "Mirror of Privilege: Making Whiteness Visible"
- Concert: Cuarteto Latinoamericano

Friday, March 23

- Tyler Art Gallery opening
- Concert by Broadway star Craig Shulman

Saturday, March 24

- Theatre fashion show: "A Fashionable High Tea"

Sunday, March 25

- Lecture-demonstration: "Telling Tales through Gestures"

Tuesday, March 27

- On Screen/In Person film: "Proceed and Be Bold"
- Concert: "Three Pieces for Two Orchestras"

Wednesday, March 28

- International Day

For details, see SUNY Oswego Events.

Follow SUNY Oswego

