Telephone Registration

For returning graduate students only. New students should either use the GSP application (located in the insert) or call SPD at 516-632-7050 to request a master's or advanced graduate certificate application.

To Register by Phone Telephone lines are open Monday–Sunday, 7:00 am – midnight through the end of late registration.

1. Review the sample worksheet below, noting all required information.
2. Choose courses and write required information on sample worksheet below.
3. Call the following telephone system number:

FROM OFF-CAMPUS: 516-632-1100

4. Touch "1" to identify yourself as a touchtone caller.
5. Touch "1" to choose the Registration menu.
6. Enter your Stony Brook ID number, which is usually your Social Security Number. If you use an assigned ID number beginning with USB, enter "8-7-2" followed by the rest of your assigned number. If you use an assigned number beginning with FOR, enter "3-6-7" followed by the rest of your assigned number.
7. Enter your Personal Identification Number (PIN). Your PIN is a six-digit number initially based on your date of birth. For example, if your date of birth is February 29, 1973, your assigned PIN is 022973.
8. If you are not eligible to register, you will hear instructions relating to your particular situation.
9. Remember to use the department numbers, NOT the three-letter course designators.
10. Once the system recognizes that you are eligible to register, you will be asked to touch:
   • "1" to register
   • "2" to add courses
   • "3" to drop courses
   • "4" to change sections within a course
   • "5" to add or remove Pass/No-credit option (undergraduate students only)
   • "6" to hear confirmation of your semester program with meeting times and classroom locations when available
   • "7" to change Personal Identification Number (PIN)
11. After all the information has been entered, press the pound key (#) to receive a confirmation of your transactions.

Note on Dropping Courses
If you wish to drop all of your courses or your only course, you may not use the telephone system; you may file a Withdrawal from the University Form in person, or request this option by mail or fax: 516-632-9491.

TELEPHONE REGISTRATION WORKSHEET For easy phone registration, complete before calling.

Computer-Based Education Technologies
(375) EST 571 • 3 credits
This course emphasizes the design and evaluation of computer-based educational technology systems. The uses of personal computers, intelligent video disks, games, and other devices in education are examined. Students will learn state-of-the-art technology, contemporary uses, strategies for matching these technologies to the needs and characteristics of learners, ways of introducing these systems into learning environments, and the evaluation of their effectiveness.
Prerequisite: EST 565 or permission of department, 516-632-8767.
Section 01: M, 6-9 pm, Glenn Gordon Smith.

Technology in Learning Systems
(375) EST 585 • 3 credits
This course is designed to provide educators with an overview of uses of technology to enhance instruction. Both conventional as well as innovative and nonconventional learning situations are considered. Specific analysis of the design and function of learning environments, individual applications related to the student's area of professional practice, and discussion of future educational uses of technology as well as present applications. Students are exposed to various educational technologies, and work on a professional presentation highlighting the applications of a technology of their choice to an educational system.
Prerequisite: EST 582, systems background, or permission of instructor.
Note: Course offered through EngNet. Class will follow the regular semester. Call Joanne English Daily at 516-632-9940 for additional information.
Section 24: Hours TBA, Peter Lasagna.

Waste Management
For related courses, see Technology and Society

Marine Pollution
(225) CEY 512 • 3 credits
Pollutant bioavailability, assimilation by marine organisms, toxicity, and related policy issues will be examined in this course, which will also look at physical and chemical characteristics and speciation in the marine environment of organic pollutants, metals and metalloids, and long-lived radio nuclides emanating from the nuclear fuel cycle, as well as the geochemical cycling and mobility in marine systems.
Prerequisite: College-level biology, chemistry and organic chemistry or MAR 502 and MAR 503.
Note: Crosslisted with MAR 512.
Section 01: Tu, 5-8 pm, Nicholas Fisher.

Introduction to Risk Assessment and Risk Management
(225) CEY 557 • 3 credits
Risk assessment, the quantification of the degree of hazard resulting from human activities, is the device adopted by governmental agencies to establish the priorities of the hazards of our daily lives. This course will explore the science and assumptions on which risk assessment is based, the benefits it has generated, and the controversies surrounding its use. The use of risk assessment methods and the problems associated with risk communication will be studied, along with case studies.
Note: Crosslisted with MAR 557; class begins 9/18; ends 11/20; no class 10/9.
Section 50: Sa, 9 am-1:10 pm, Harold Berger.

Women's Studies
For related courses, see Electronic Extension

Women's Studies in the Humanities ▲
(209) CEJ 532 • 3 credits • AH/LS
Focus of the course will be an understanding of the intellectual premises and research methodologies of women's studies as an academic discipline in the humanities. Discussion will include questions about greatness in humanities fields, the processes by which women's lives as artists are recorded, and the impact of the 20th century women's movement in the humanities and arts. Also to be covered: the ways in which women's lives have differed from men's and how these differences have affected women's work in the humanities.
Section 01: Tu, 5:30-8:30 pm, Heidi Johnsen.

Women and Society ▲
(210) CEJ 532 • 3 credits • SB/LS
This course will draw on several areas of the social sciences including history, anthropology, psychology, political science, sociology, religion, and economics to attempt to understand women's current position in society. It will also focus on how race and class interact with gender to form women's experiences and status.
Section 01: Th, 6:30-9:30 pm, Robyn DeLuca.

Theater Arts
For related courses, see Education
Technology and Society

For related courses, see Electronic Extension

Philosophy of Technology: The Uses and Abuses of Science ▲

(209) CEI 572  •  3 credits  •  NS/LS
Has today's newfangled technology been, on the whole, socially beneficial, or has it been detrimental to human life? Take a look at this question by examining such topics as: the nature and types of technological activity; the history of technology and its relation to science; and issues in ethics, economics, and politics. Concepts such as growth and progress, productivity and efficiency, the means-ends relationship, and the "good life" will be explored.

Section 21:  W, 6:30-9:30 pm, Mark Roberts.

Meets at Patchogue-Medford High School, Buffalo Avenue, Medford, room 208. First class meets 9/15. Crosslisted with PHI 537.

Educational Uses of the Information Highway

(210) CEI 591  •  3 credits
This practical hands-on course is designed for educators, multimedia-specialists, and administrators who are interested in exploring the Information Highway, a rich resource offering learning opportunities. Students will navigate the Net, integrate this new technology into the classroom, and create basic web pages.

Prerequisite: Participants must have computer experience.

Note: Crosslisted with EST 572.

Section 01:  Tu, 6:30-9:30 pm, Anthony Scarlatos.

Assessment of Socio-Technological Problems and Issues ▲

(214) CEN 580  •  3 credits  •  NS/LS; Core B
This examination of studies that relate to current socio-technical issues includes a look at: transportation, water and energy resources, access for the disabled, artificial hearts, and electronic funds transfer. Emphasis will be on the assessment of emerging technological systems and the science and mathematics that underlie these systems.

Section 01:  M, 5:30-8:30 pm, Nina Leonard.

Section 30:  Hours TBA, Patricia Baker. Internet course: computer, modem, graphical web browser required; extra fee course. Begins 9/28 ends 11/30; registration for this course closes at the end of the drop/add period. Call 516-632-9484 for additional information.

Personal Computers in Learning Environments

(375) EST 565  •  3 credits
This course will provide exposure to and experience with several of the personal microcomputers. These machines, with a cost range of $800 to $2,000, are appearing in schools and other learning environments. The course covers basic specifications and characteristics of several machines, an introduction to the commercial programs available for these machines, and how to use them in the classrooms. It is expected that at the end of the course the students will be able to develop a working program that could be used in a classroom.

Prerequisite: EST 583.

Section 01:  W, 6-9 pm, Glen Gordon-Smith.

Design of Computer Courseware

(375) EST 570  •  3 credits
The purpose of this course is to develop in the student the capability to develop computer courseware modules in the student's discipline. Existing courseware modules will be described to illustrate the structure requirements of such modules. After each exposure, each student will select topics for courseware development from his/her discipline and will concentrate on module development under the individual guidance of the instructor. Students will implement the programs in microcomputers in the Laboratory for Personal Computer in Education.

Prerequisite: EST 565 or permission of department, call 516-632-8767.

Section 01:  Tu, 6:30-9:30 pm, Joanne English Daly.
Supervised Student Teaching High School Grades 10-12: Foreign Languages
(385) FLA 551 • 3 credits
Prospective foreign language teachers will participate in a supervised student teaching experience in selected Long Island secondary schools, grades 10-12. The student teacher reports to the school to which he/she is assigned each full school day. Frequent consultation with the supervising teacher helps the student interpret and evaluate the teaching experience. Applications must be filed in the semester preceding student teaching.
Prerequisite: FLA 505, FLA 506, or departmental teaching strategies course.
Note: Co-requisites with FLA 554 and FLA 552. Cannot apply toward MA/LS. S/U grading.
Section 01: Hours TBA, M. Macaluso.

Supervised Student Teaching High School Grades 7-9: Foreign Languages
(385) FLA 552 • 3 credits
Prospective foreign language teachers will participate in a supervised student teaching experience in selected Long Island secondary schools, grades 7-9. The student teacher reports to the school to which he/she is assigned each full school day. Frequent consultation with the supervising teacher helps the student interpret and evaluate the teaching experience. Applications must be filed in the semester preceding student teaching.
Prerequisite: FLA 505, FLA 506 or departmental teaching strategies course.
Note: Co-requisites with FLA 554 and FLA 551. Cannot apply toward MA/LS. S/U grading.
Section 01: Hours TBA, M. Macaluso.

Supervised Student Teaching Middle School Grades 7-9: Foreign Languages
(385) FLA 554 • 3 credits
Prospective foreign language teachers will participate in a supervised student teaching experience in selected Long Island secondary schools, grades 7-9. The student teacher reports to the school to which he/she is assigned each full school day. Frequent consultation with the supervising teacher helps the student interpret and evaluate the teaching experience. Applications must be filed in the semester preceding student teaching.
Prerequisite: FLA 505, FLA 506 or departmental teaching strategies course.
Note: Co-requisites with FLA 554 and FLA 551. Cannot apply toward MA/LS. S/U grading.
Section 01: Hours TBA, M. Macaluso.

Student Teaching Seminar
(385) FLA 555 • 3 credits
This seminar on issues, policies, programs, and problems in teaching foreign languages, grades 7-12, will analyze real-life problems encountered by the student in his/her teaching experience.
Prerequisite: Those related to FLA 550.
Note: Co-requisite FLA 550. Co-scheduled with FLA 454. One session is devoted to the State Education Department's requirement for Child Abuse Education; a $20 processing fee will be assessed for issuance of an official statement which verifies satisfactory completion of this requirement.
Section 01: Tu, 5:30-8:30 pm, M. Macaluso.

Introduction to Science Teaching
(870) SCI 510 • 3 credits
Strategies, techniques, and materials used in teaching secondary school science will be covered, along with lesson planning, student evaluation, and classroom observation. The course consists of four hours of lecture/laboratory and six hours of school-based experience per week.
Prerequisite: Matriculation in MAT/SCI program.
Note: Co-scheduled with SCI 200.
Section 01: W, 5-8 pm, Gerard Stutzky.

Science Instructional Strategies and Techniques
(870) SCI 520 • 3 credits
This overview of the strategies and techniques necessary to create a responsive student-centered learning environment will focus on investigative and laboratory activities as well as safety. Curriculum unit development and essays on school reform are required for the course, which consists of four hours of lecture/laboratory and six hours of school-based experience per week.
Prerequisite: SCI 510.
Note: Prerequisite course for those not yet certified. Co-scheduled with SCI 300.
Section 01: M, 5-8 pm, Jacqueline Grennon-Brooks.

Supervised Student Teaching High School Grades 10-12: Science
(870) SCI 551 • 3 credits
Prospective science teachers will participate in a supervised student teaching experience in selected Long Island secondary schools, grades 10-12. The student teacher reports to the school to which he/she is assigned each full school day. Frequent consultation with the supervising teacher helps the student interpret and evaluate the teaching experience. Applications must be filed in the semester preceding student teaching.
Prerequisite: Matriculation in MAT/SCI program.

Section 01: Hours TBA, Melvin Morris.

Supervised Teaching of Science Seminar
(870) SCI 554 • 3 credits
This seminar, which will focus on problems encountered by student teachers and public school teachers at the secondary level, will include study and analysis of science teaching issues, including classroom management, school culture, and social issues affecting the schools and student performance.
Prerequisite: Matriculation in MAT/SCI program.
Note: Co-requisites SCI 551, SCI 552, Co-scheduled with SCI 454. One session is devoted to the State Education Department's requirement for Child Abuse Education; a $20 processing fee will be assessed for issuance of an official statement which verifies satisfactory completion of this requirement.

Independent Study

Independent Study
(204) CED 599 • variable credit
Students may pursue a specific area of academic investigation through independent study. To be considered for CED 599 Independent Study students will need to have:
1. completed at least six credits of graduate coursework at Stony Brook;
2. maintained at least a B average in that graduate work;
3. prepared a proposal describing what they would like to do, after consulting with a Stony Brook faculty member who is willing to supervise their work and sponsor their independent study project;
4. completed and submitted an Application for Independent Study, which is available from the School of Professional Development Office. The completed application must be signed by the faculty sponsor and the appropriate department chairperson. It must also be submitted for review by the assistant dean of the School of Professional Development four to six weeks in advance of a semester’s final registration dates.

A student will be eligible to register for CED 599 when his/her application is approved by the assistant dean. An appropriate section number will be assigned at that time.

The maximum number of credits of CED 599 Independent Study that may be applied toward an SPD degree (where appropriate) is six.

How to Register
Returning students may register in person, by fax, or by using the automated telephone system.

Examining Contemporary Education
(222) CEV 509 • 3 credits
This course will introduce a number of contemporary educational commentators and will offer participants the opportunity to explore together such issues as the goal and purpose of education today, the relative importance of curriculum and methodology of presentation, a review of diverse educational methodologies and their justifications. Main readings will be from E. D. Hirsch, Kieran Egan, and Neil Postman.
Note: Internet course; computer, modern, graphical web browser required; extra fee course. Begins 9/28 ends 11/30; registration for this course closes at the end of the drop/add period. Call 516-632-9484 for additional information.
Section 30: Hours TBA, Wendy Turgeon.

Engineering Sciences

Modern Materials ▲
(214) CEN 575 • 3 credits • NS/LS
This introduction to the fascinating world of modern materials will tackle such questions as: Why do things break? Why are some solids stronger than others? Why is steel tough and glass brittle? Which materials can be used to replace damaged human tissues? What are photonic materials and why are they good for long distance communications? The answers to these and other questions will enable students to become aware of the great developments in this age of advanced materials.

MA/LS and MPS Project Seminar
(204) CED 595 • 3 credits

Students will be given guidance in selecting a specific topic that will become the subject of their project. Simultaneously, they will explore research techniques, identifying library and other research resources on campus and in the community. Students will present a first draft or project feasibility study both orally and in written form to a seminar audience. The project should be completed within the semester and submitted, according to standards and guidelines established by the School of Professional Development, when determined satisfactory by the project seminar instructor. If the project is not completed within the semester, the grade of U will be assigned, and students will have to register and repeat the seminar in the following term.

Prerequisite: For MA/LS degree candidates: Completion of the Liberal Studies requirement (9 credits)

Note: Internet course: computer, modem, graphical web browser required; extra fee course. Begins 9/28 ends 11/30; registration for this course closes at the end of the drop/add period. Call 516-632-9484 for additional information.

Modern Communications: Technology Systems ▲
(209) CEI 511 • 3 credits • NS/LS

The study of basic principles and concepts that underlie the design and usage of modern communications technology systems is the emphasis of this course. All effective communications systems (such as radio, TV, and radar) must be designed to match the capabilities of the human user. An example of good ergonomic design is how a hi-fi system is designed to match the hearing characteristics of humans. The background principles that relate to communications systems include the electromagnetic spectrum and analog and digital signals. The study of communications technology systems will also deal with the human and societal impacts.

Note: Internet course: computer, modem, graphical web browser required; extra fee course. Begins 9/28 ends 11/30; registration for this course closes at the end of the drop/add period. Call 516-632-9484 for additional information.

Preservice course for those not yet certified to teach.

Section 30: Hours TBA, Thomas Liao.

Literature of American Slavery ▲
(209) CEI 518 • 3 credits • AH/LS

Students will read and analyze a wide range of literature: novels, slavery narratives, spirituals, poetry, abolitionist essays, and oral histories. The literature will come from the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries including works such as Douglass's Narrative of his life, Jacob's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Melville's Benito Cereno, Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin, Twain's Huckleberry Finn, Harriemee's Before Freedom, and Morrison's Beloved. These and additional works will invite discussion of social, moral, economic, and political issues related to slavery.

Note: Internet course: computer, modem, graphical web browser required; extra fee course. Begins 9/28 ends 11/30; registration for this course closes at the end of the drop/add period. Call 516-632-9484 for additional information.

Section 30: Hours TBA, Sharon Brown.

American Literature in Cultural Context: 1878-1920 ▲
(209) CEI 537 • 3 credits • AH/LS

To fully understand works of literary art, we must also examine the culture that contributed to the writing and the publication of these works. This course takes an interdisciplinary approach to novels, diaries, and short stories written by Henry James, Edith Wharton, Harold Frederic, Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Kate Chopin, Theodore Dreiser, Sinclair Lewis, and F. Scott Fitzgerald. The world of art, music, and architecture, as well as developments in the publishing industry, are examined to see how they influence and are reflected in the literary works we read.

Note: Internet course: computer, modem, graphical web browser required; extra fee course. Begins 9/28 ends 11/30; registration for this course closes at the end of the drop/add period. Call 516-632-9484 for additional information.

Manipulatives and Mathematics
(213) CEM 570 • 3 credits
The focus of this course will be the use of manipulatives as applied to the standards set forth by New York State and the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics. Participants will be using manipulatives during each class period to solve problems and increase mathematical knowledge. Emphasis will be on content and concepts for grades 4-5.

Note: Suitable for grades K-8, with emphasis placed on grades 4-5.

Section 21: M, 4:30-7:45 pm, Ronald Mincio.
Meets at Bay Shore Middle School, 393 Brook Avenue, Bay Shore, room 621. First class meets 9/15; no class 9/20 and 10/11.

Workshop in Methods of Teaching Chemistry in the Junior High School
(214) CEN 505 • 3 credits
A laboratory-oriented workshop that will develop a series of chemistry activities and exercises appropriate for use by teachers in grades 6-9.

Section 01: M, 5:30-8:30 pm, C. V. Krishnan.

Awards for Students and Teachers
Hugh J. Cassidy Memorial Award
Named in honor of a former SPD student, this award, administered by the University's Alumni Association, honors a current or former student who can demonstrate that the SPD program has made a significant impact on his/her life, professionally and/or in the community. Self nominations are acceptable, as well as nominations from faculty or staff.

Application forms are available starting in January in the Alumni office, located in the Frank Melville, Jr. Memorial Library. For information, call 516-632-6330.

Bentley Glass-Mortimer Kreuter Great Teacher Award
Named after Bentley Glass, the former academic vice president of Stony Brook (1965-1971) and founder of the School of Professional Development (originally named School of Continuing Education), and Mortimer Kreuter, the school's first Dean, this award recognizes superior teaching within the SPD program. Nominees must demonstrate that they have had an impact on student's intellectual, professional, and moral development.

Deadline for nominations is March 31. The award consists of $2,000 and is presented with a plaque at SPD's commencement convocation in May. For information, call Assistant Dean Sandra Romanksy at 516-632-6330.

Section 01: M, 5:30-8:30 pm, Anne Raybin.

Philosophy and Children

(209) CEF 519 • 3 credits • SB/LS
With their first questioning, Why? children challenge us to examine the presuppositions of experience. Their natural tendency to philosophize about words, reality, and morality requires careful nurturing if it is to develop into careful critical reflection. Using the current research and curriculum models of Lipman, Matthews, and others as a guide, we will embark on structured philosophic dialogues with children coincidently seeking to reawaken our own wonderment about our world. At the center of our focus will be the tantalizing image of childhood, universally lived and yet mysteriously foreign to the adult. What visions of the world can we share with a child? Philosophy will serve as our conduit into these shared landscapes. In individual research students will have the opportunity to explore historical, sociological, and psychological (as well as philosophical) perspectives on childhood.

Prerequisite: Previous course in philosophy recommended.

Note: Crosslisted with PHI 552.

Section 01: Th, 6:30-9:30 pm, Wendy Turgeon.

Section 21: Tu, 6:30-9:30 pm, Wendy Turgeon.

New York, New York:
The Rise of a Great City

(204) CED 502 • 3 credits • SB/LS
New York is America's premier city. From its Dutch origins it has risen to become the nation's center of intellectual and literary life. World's fairs are influenced by Wall Street's actions. A theatre in the United States is synonymous with Broadway. Among the topics that will loom large in this course are the rise of the skyscraper, Greenwich Village and bohemian life styles, the city's infrastructure: building subways, bridges, tunnels, water and sewage systems, gas and electricity, music and the arts; ethnic communities and the immigrant contribution; gentrification and the white flight to the suburbs.

Section 21: Tu, 5-8 pm, Alex Baskin.
Meets at John F. Kennedy High School, Kennedy Drive, Plainview; room number will be posted first night of class. First class meets 9/14; no class 11/2.

20th Century Latin American Visual Culture: Painting and Film

(210) CEF 533 • 3 credits • AH/LS
This course is an introduction to 20th century Latin American visual culture. The course will examine key pictorial movements of 20th century Latin America—such as the muralist painters (in Mexico and beyond), Expressionism, Realism, and Pop Art—in order to relate the artistic and aesthetic questions posed by these movements to larger historical and cultural issues. Films to be reviewed are from the three main Latin American national film industries (Argentina, Mexico, and Cuba). These films are intended to present an historical development of Latin American cinema and include classic films by Cantinflas (Mario Moreno) as well as recent pictures.

Note: Language of instruction is English.

Section 01: Th, 5:30-8:30 pm, Antonio Vera-Leon.

Literary Liaisons Through the Ages: A Multicultural and Cinematic Approach

(207) CEG 512 • 3 credits • AH/LS

Art

Metal Casting
(201) CEA 518 • 3 credits
A course covering the production and finishing of objects in cast bronze and aluminum, emphasizing mold making and foundry work, rather than modeling or the creation of original. Casting of functional items, as well as art objects, will be acceptable. Replication of existing objects will also be acceptable, including a review of piece molding and flexible molding techniques. While a co-op purchasing system will be available to minimize material costs, a student should expect to invest funds that will appropriately support class activity.
Prerequisite: Previous metal shop experience, permission of instructor, 516-632-7250.
Section 01: Tu, 5:30-8:30 pm, James Beatman.

Project in Art History
(208) CEH 512 • 1-6 credits
This independent study for the student with a background in art history/criticism or art education consists of selected readings or a field project. The student's work and progress are discussed, evaluated, and critiqued by the faculty sponsor during scheduled sessions.
Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and chairperson; contact Art Department for faculty sponsor and section number in your area of interest, 516-632-7250.
Note: May be repeated to a maximum of six credits.
Section 01: Hours TBA, Staff.

(208) CEH 514 • 1-6 credits
Independent study on specific projects under the guidance of faculty and staff include the disciplines of sculpture, painting, drawing, ceramics and ceramic sculpture, printmaking, or photography.
Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and chairperson; contact Art Department for faculty sponsor and section number in your area of interest, 516-632-7250.
Note: May be repeated to a maximum of six credits; $50 fee will be assessed to students registered for this course.
Section 01: Hours TBA, Staff.

The Mark of Art: An Interdisciplinary Approach ▲
(209) CEJ 524 • 3 credits • AH/LS
Studying connections between art and history, art and investigative science, and art and psychology, this course will explore the process of creativity and why a particular era produces the art it does.
Section 01: Th, 5:30-8:30 pm, Gregory Tsontakis-Mally.

Biological Sciences

Physiology and Biochemistry of the Cell Cycle
(202) CEB 514 • 3 credits
Take a look at the cell developmental cycle in prokaryotes and eukaryotes, its dynamics and control, and the events that comprise it. Topics include: cell cycle anatomy; measurements on fixed and living cells, kinetics of cell population growth; theory and methodology of batch, synchronized, and continuous cultures; general patterns of nucleic acid synthesis; regulation of enzyme activity; temporal control of gene expression; development and function of cellular organelles; cell cycle clocks; the circadian oscillator; and control of cell division.
Prerequisite: A basic knowledge of modern biochemistry, cell biology, and molecular genetics.
Note: Crosslisted with BCD 537 and HBA 537.
Section 01: Th, 4-7 pm, Leland Edmunds.

Introduction to Oenology
(202) CEB 533 • 1 or 3 credits
This course will describe all aspects of the world's continuing interest and romance with wine: its history, botany, and microbiology; the science of wine making; physiology of the palate; geography of wine regions, including soil and climatic considerations; the economics of the wine industry; and finally an inquiry into the question of what makes one wine great and another mediocre. The wine producing regions of the world will be surveyed, and the factors affecting quality and wine classification will be discussed.
Section 01: W, 6-9 pm, Harvard Lyman.

Current Topics in Biotechnology
(202) CEB 546 • 3 credits
Update your understanding of the rapidly changing fields of biotechnology, recombinant DNA technology, and molecular genetics, particularly in medicine, agriculture, and the environment. With an emphasis on laboratories in basic DNA technology, students will develop high tech laboratories for use in the middle school and high school biology curriculum.
Section 01: W, 6:30-9:30 pm, Michael Belanich.
Electronic Extension Program

Imagine...

... having a place where you control time.
... entering a classroom without walls.
... reaching Stony Brook faculty with the click of a button.
... networking with other professionals who share your desire to learn.
... earning degree credit at home, at work, or while travelling.

It's all happening in SPD's innovative Electronic Extension Program (EEP), an asynchronous distance learning option that takes place entirely in cyberspace.

The Electronic Extension Program is an opportunity for people all over the world to take graduate courses from Stony Brook University. Connecting via the Internet, students receive instruction, discuss issues with their instructors and each other, and actively participate in their classes.

Unlike in a "chatroom," EEP classroom discussions are asynchronous, that is, they do not occur in real time. This allows you to log on whenever and wherever you wish—at home, at work, on the road—any place that has Internet access.

The EEP Advantage

In contrast to their on-campus counterparts, EEP students:

- Receive syllabi with detailed assignments then log on at their convenience.
- Spend more time learning and no time commuting.
- Complete a semester's coursework in just nine weeks.
- Mix electronic and on-site courses for superior scheduling flexibility.

Technical Requirements

You don't need to be "high-tech" to get started, just have some basic knowledge of how to use your Internet software. The following is a recommended minimum computer set-up:

- Pentium with Windows 95/NT or Macintosh with OS 7.5
- 16MB RAM
- 28.8 baud modem
- Latest version of a graphical web browser
- E-mail—required.

Please be aware that some public access sites do not have e-mail capabilities.

Time Requirements

At this time, all EEP courses run for nine weeks, instead of the traditional 14-week semester. For fall 1999, classes begin on September 28 and end on November 30. Because of this compressed format, the workload is heavier—about 6-8 hours of work a week. We, therefore, recommend that new students limit themselves to one or two classes for their first on-line semester.

Fees

In addition to the regular graduate tuition and University fees, there is a $85 communications fee charged for each semester regardless of the number of classes you take. The check or money order is to be made payable to SUNY at Stony Brook, and can be dropped off at the SBS building, room N-215, or mailed to:

School of Professional Development
SUNY at Stony Brook
Stony Brook, NY 11794-4310
Attention: Electronic Extension Program

Please note, the communications fee must be paid prior to the start of classes.

Degree and Certificate Programs

Coursework completed via the Electronic Extension Program may be applied toward the completion of an SPD graduate degree or advanced graduate certificate or transferred to another institution. For those seeking a Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MA/LIS), many core courses are offered each semester (designated by ▲) as well as the project seminar (CED 595). As always, check with your academic advisor while planning your degree.

Fall 1999 Course Offerings

Classification of Courses

MA/LS Degree Requirements: The Liberal Studies courses offered through SPD this semester are listed in this section of course descriptions. Titles and course descriptions are designated by the symbol, ▲. Liberal Studies courses carry a notation of LS and an area designator as follows:

- AH/LS for Liberal Studies in the Arts and Humanities
- NS/LS for Liberal Studies in the Natural and Applied Sciences
- SB/LS for Liberal Studies in the Social and Behavioral Sciences

MPS Degree Requirements: The designator for courses fulfilling the MPS core requirements is ■. Courses are noted as filling either an Area A or Area B requirement.

For a quick reference of all courses offered this semester, turn to Fall Courses-at-a-Glance, which begins on page 50.

Prerequisites

Prerequisites indicate the course background expected of students and are listed for the student's benefit. Students lacking a prerequisite who do not secure permission for a waiver can be denied admission to the course.

Room Assignments

Classroom assignments for each semester's courses are listed in the Undergraduate and Graduate Schedule published by the Office of Student Services. This schedule is available before advance registration begins. Students who register by telephone may also obtain room assignments via the telephone registration system at 516-632-1100. Room assignments are also posted outside the School of Professional Development office.

Changes in Course Listings

Students should always refer to the Undergraduate and Graduate Schedule and SPD bulletin Update that is available from the SPD office. The Update indicates any changes in course offerings that occur after the semester's course bulletin has been printed. Changes may include course additions, closings, cancellations, or changes in the days or times a course is to be given. Students using telephone registration who attempt to register for a course that is closed, canceled, or changed, will be informed when registering.

Registration

Returning students may register in person, by fax, and via the Automated Telephone System. Page 34 contains instructions and a worksheet for using the Automated Telephone System.

Complete details on registration procedures can be found on pages 22-25 in the Academic Information and Support Services section.

(6 pm in summer). Bring your vehicle registration, University ID card, and a check for $5 made out to SUNY Stony Brook. Outstanding fines must be satisfied before a parking permit will be issued.

Evening students may purchase a parking garage evening monthly ticket for $11.37. The first time you purchase the monthly ticket, a $10 deposit is required. At the time of initial purchase, you must show a copy of your course schedule, your student ID card, and your vehicle registration sticker or number. Call the parking garage office at 632-6275 for service hours.

For further information on parking and traffic matters, please contact the Traffic Affairs office at 516-632-6345 or the Bursar at 516-632-9316.

Public Safety/University Police
The Department of Public Safety/University Police, located in Dutchess Hall on South Campus, operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week. A substation is located in the Student Union. The Community Relations Team is willing to speak on an array of personal safety and awareness issues. If you would like additional information or have questions about personal safety issues, please call the office of Douglas Little at 516-632-7786.

Outside emergency "bluelight" phones are located throughout the campus for your emergency use. If something unusual occurs, just pick up the handset and push the button to be immediately connected to the University Police, or dial 333.

The Walk Service will provide any student, faculty, or staff member with a free escort from one place to another on campus, seven days a week, from 8 pm to 3:30 am.

Telephone: 516-632-6327.

Research/Writing Assistance
Students undertaking a research project culminating in a research paper or any other writing project may obtain individual assistance from the English Department's Writing Center, Humanities Building, room 198.

Telephone: 516-632-7450.

Returning Student Organization/Network
If you have questions or problems relating to everyday campus life, or if you just want to interact with other returning students, call the Returning Student Organization.

Telephone: 516-632-6828.

SPD Alumni Chapter
SPD has an alumni chapter that sponsors events of particular interest to its graduates. SPD alumni who are interested in planning events or serving on an advisory board are invited to contact us.

Telephone: 516-632-7050.

Sports Complex
A hub of campus activity, the Sports Complex has extended hours to accommodate evening students and the general public.

The aquatic center, weight rooms, courts, and other sports and exercise facilities are open to students, faculty, staff, and the public at specified times. Students can use the facilities for free with proper identification; there is a modest fee for non-students.

Telephone: 516-632-7200.

Stony Brook Alumni Association
The Alumni Association sponsors reunions, regional club events, homecoming, and special events on and off campus.

The Alumni Association also administers a number of student awards. The Hugh J. B. Cassedy Memorial Award of $900 is designated for a current or former student who can demonstrate that the SPD Program at Stony Brook has made a significant impact on his/her life either professionally and/or in the community. Self-nominations are acceptable, as well as nominations from faculty or staff. Application forms are available in January in the Alumni Office, (Melville Library, first floor). There is a deadline for submission of the application.

Telephone: 516-632-6330.

Student Health Insurance
Optional Domestic Student Health Insurance
An optional health insurance plan is available to all domestic students, whether in full- or part-time attendance. For information call or visit Leta Edelson at the Student Health Insurance Office in the West Campus Health Service (Infirmary), or call 516-632-6074.

Mandatory International Student Health Insurance
For all students on non-immigrant visas, whether full or part-time, health insurance is mandatory; is automatically billed to the student’s account, and must be paid. SPD students may pay by semester but are liable for the full year’s charge unless they have applied for an insurance waiver, and it has been approved. The deadline to apply for a waiver is the second week of classes.

For further information regarding health insurance and eligibility for a waiver application, contact the Student Health Insurance Office in the West Campus Health Service (Infirmary). The phone number is 516-632-6054.

Student Union and Activities
For information concerning facilities and ongoing recreational programs, contact the Department of Student Union and Activities, Stony Brook Union call 516-632-6820.

Information about daily campus student activities is also available by calling The Voice of Student Activities, a 24-hour service.

Telephone: 516-632-6821.

University Counseling Center
Counseling services are available year-round, and all information is strictly confidential, except when there is an imminent danger. Appointments for an initial visit are made on a same-day or next-day basis.

Telephone: 516-632-6720.

Yes—Parents Are Students, Too (Y-PAST)
Established in 1990 to encourage men and women with parenting responsibilities to continue their education, Y-PAST is dedicated to dispelling the myth that parenthood prevents people from achieving their highest educational aspirations. Members serve as resources and role models for those new to college or new to parenting, as advocates for improving the quality of life for parenting students, as referral agents to ensure that students with dependents receive appropriate assistance from the university offices, and as sponsors of relevant programs and activities for Y-PAST members and their families. For more information, contact the University Apartments Office.

Telephone: 516-632-6735.

Student Health Information

All Stony Brook students, including those enrolled in credit programs through the School of Professional Development, will be blocked from all registrations if they are not in compliance with Public Health Law 2165, which states that all students born on or after January 1, 1957, must demonstrate proof of immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella. Signed documentation of proof of immunity by one of the following means for each disease must be submitted to the University's Student Health Services:

- Measles: Two vaccines after 1/68 at least 30 days apart, 90 days recommended; or history of disease; or blood titer showing immunity.
- Mumps: One mumps vaccine after 1/69; history of the disease; or titer showing immunity.
- Rubella: One rubella vaccine after 1/69; or titer showing immunity (history of rubella is not acceptable proof of immunity).

Those with a birth date prior to 1/1/57 are exempt from this requirement. However, they must submit a copy of either a birth certificate or a driver's license to document their birthdate.

Students should send or report to the Student Health Service with one of the following:

a. proof of immunity by completing and returning the Immunization Record Form (see below) to the address listed on the form.

b. evidence that he/she has received one immunization and is awaiting the required time between immunizations, i.e., copy of an appointment with a health practitioner (private physician or clinic, etc.).

Students who remain in noncompliance will NOT be permitted to register due to the fact that the University will be subject to a $1,000 fine per student not in compliance. Students not in compliance with Public Health Law 2165 prior to registration will no longer be permitted to attend any New York State institution unless he/she has received a religious or medical exemption or can document that he/she is in the process of receiving the necessary immunizations. No tuition can be refunded and the student will not be able to register for an ensuing semester until proof of immunity is provided.

A limited number of immunizations are available at the Student Health Service or the Public Health Service. You may also obtain them from your private physician. If you have any questions, call the Student Health Service at 516-632-6740.

The University's new Commuter Student Affairs Office is located in the Student Activities Center and is open weekdays from 8:30 am to 5 pm. The office provides outreach, advocacy, programming, and other services for commuter students.
Telephone: 516-632-7353.

Disabled Student Services
All students with disabilities are encouraged to contact Disabled Student Services, located at Humanities Building, room 133.
Telephone: 516-632-6748 (voice/TDD).

Graduate Student Organization (GSO)
The GSO Inc. is a not-for-profit corporation funded by the student activity fee. All full-time and part-time nonprofessional graduate students who pay the activity fee are members of the GSO. The GSO is located in the Computer Science Building, room 2105.

Our current senator is Roger P. Forbes, who can be reached via e-mail at rforbes@ic.sunysb.edu.
Telephone: 516-632-6492.

Health Services
The Student Health Service, located on the first floor of the Infirmary Building, provides for the health needs of registered students.
Telephone: 516-632-6740.

Housing
Campus
Full-time graduate students (9 or more credit hours a semester) are eligible for on-campus housing in the Chapin and Schomburg apartment complexes. Contact the Division of Campus Residences for more information.
Telephone: 516-632-6750.

Off-Campus
For help finding apartment and house rentals in the Stony Brook area, contact Off-Campus Housing. They also have a searchable database of listings on their web page. http://och.vp sia.sunysb.edu/.
Telephone: 516-632-6770.

Identification Cards (ID)
University policy requires that all students using the library and other campus facilities (sports complex, tennis courts, etc.) or wishing to obtain student rates for campus events must have an ID card. After registering, you may apply for an ID card by presenting a receipt for payment of registration fees or a confirmation of registration.
Lost or stolen ID's can be replaced by first paying a $10 fee at the ID office and reapplying for a new card.

The ID office, located in the basement of the Library (room 0319), has day and evening hours.
Telephone: 516-632-6517.

Intensive English Center
The Intensive English Center (IEC) offers full-time, semester-long programs in English as a Second Language.
Telephone: 516-632-7031.

Insurance
See "Student Health Insurance."

Interfaith Center
The Interfaith Center serves campus religious needs through its six member denominations with a wide variety of services and activities. Offices are located in the Humanities Building, rooms 153-167.
Telephone: 516-632-6565.

Libraries
The Stony Brook campus is endowed with several libraries. These libraries contain over 1.8 million bound volumes and 3.1 million publications in microformat.
The Melville Library subscribes to a number of research databases which can be accessed through any campus-networked computer via the library's web site. Databases which may be of particular interest to SPD students and faculty include:
Lexis-Nexis Academic Universe: Wide range of news, political, legal, and business information in full-text format.
Searchbank Expanded Academic Index: Over 3 million articles from both popular and refereed periodicals from 1980 to the present.
ERIC: References to thousands of educational topics for 1966 to the present.
Social Sciences Abstracts: International, English language periodicals in sociology, anthropology, political science, law, economics, and geography with abstracts from 1994 to the present.

All of the above databases can be accessed through the library's web site at: www.sunysb.edu/Library/idsubs.htm.
Telephone: 516-632-7110.

Office of Veterans Affairs
The Office of Veterans Affairs, located in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (Administration Building, room 348), provides counseling and advice to veterans and eligible dependents.
Telephone: 516-632-6701.

Ombuds Office
The services of the Ombuds Office are available to all students. This is the place to turn if you are having trouble getting through a bureaucratic maze or you need help resolving a dispute with someone or solving a problem.
The office is located in Humanities Building, room 114.
Telephone: 516-632-9200.

Parking
All vehicles parked on campus are required to have a valid parking permit affixed to the back of the rear view mirror. Permits are obtained at the Bursar's office, (Administration Building, main lobby) Monday to Friday, 8:30 am-4 pm (summer hours may be different). Each Tuesday, the office is open from 10 am to 7 pm.
Exceptions to Academic Regulations

Any SPD student who finds that extraordinary personal circumstances seem to require that an exception be made to any academic regulation may petition the SPD's Committee on Academic Standing (CAS).

Petition forms are available in the school's office. The committee deals solely with academic rules and regulations and is not authorized to rule on requests for waivers on financial regulations. Inquiries regarding financial matters must be addressed to the Office of Student Accounts.

Petitions must be submitted to SPD's Committee on Academic Standing within one calendar year after the course ends.

Grievance Procedures

Resolution of a complaint about alleged unfair or improper treatment involving a course or departmental policy/practice should first be attempted with the faculty member or administrator directly concerned. If that fails, the student should submit a written grievance to the instructor's department chairperson (program director) for consideration by the departmental grievance and appeals committee (as specified in Graduate School policy).

An appeal of a departmental decision or a problem that cannot be resolved at the departmental level may be submitted in writing to the Dean of the School of Professional Development for resolution by the School's Committee on Academic Standing, which reports its resolution or recommendation to the Dean.

Address, Telephone, and/or Name Change

Please notify the SPD Office of any address, telephone, or name changes so that you will continue to receive registration information, grade reports, and other important correspondence from the University. If you wish to record a name change, the University must see some documentation, such as a driver's license, passport, marriage certificate, court action papers, or social security card for verification.

Graduation

Commencement Ceremonies

There are two University-wide commencement ceremonies each year, one in May for candidates graduating at the end of the spring semester, and one in December for students completing requirements in December. Students graduating in July or August must choose either the May or December ceremonies.

If summer graduates decide to participate in the May ceremony, they must apply by the spring deadline, which is usually at the end of the spring add/drop period. Summer graduates who plan to attend the December ceremony may wait to apply for graduation until the July or August deadlines.

Graduation Application

Attendance at either University-wide ceremony is not mandatory. However, you must submit a formal application for graduation regardless of when you graduate and whether or not you attend a campus commencement ceremony. Applications for SPD graduates are available only in the SPD Office. SPD students must submit applications to the SPD office by the deadlines printed in the University's academic calendars. The deadline to apply for December graduation is Friday, September 24, 1999. Those students graduating in summer 1999 who wish to participate in the December commencement must apply by deadline published in the summer bulletin.

Graduation Eligibility

You are eligible for graduation when you have met the published requirements for a degree and/or certificate. To qualify for graduation in any semester, you must have all academic requirements completed by the last day of that semester.

In addition, all SPD degree and/or certificate candidates must:

- Attain at least a 3.00 (B) cumulative grade point average (GPA) for all graduate courses taken at Stony Brook, as well as a 3.00 cumulative GPA for the credits required to earn the degree and/or certificate. Grades earned in transferred courses are not included in any calculation of the cumulative GPA to determine eligibility for graduation.
- Complete all requirements within five years of matriculation.
Tax Credits for Higher Education

The Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997, signed into law in July 1997, has provided for the Hope and Lifetime Learning Tax Credits.

The HOPE Tax Credit is available to an independent student or, in the case of a dependent student, to the taxpayer entitled to claim that student as an income tax exemption. This is a non-refundable tax credit available beginning with the 1998 tax year. The benefit amount is 100% of the first $1,000 and 50% of the second $1,000 of qualifying tuition paid within a tax year to an eligible institution of higher education for the first two years of post secondary at least-half-time enrollment in a course of study leading to a degree or a recognized certificate.

The Lifetime Learning Tax Credit is available to college juniors and seniors, graduate and professional degree students, as well as adults returning to school. This non-refundable tax credit is available beginning with amounts paid on or after July 1, 1998. The benefit amount is 20% of up to $5,000 in tuition and fees, providing a maximum credit of $1,000.

For both credits, the University will report tax-related information to students and to the IRS.

We suggest that you investigate how this law affects your personal tax liability with your accountant, tax advisor, or the IRS.

Registration

Telephone Registration

Students may register by telephone beginning on Tuesday, April 13, 1999. You may register by telephone from 7:00 am to midnight each day by calling 516-632-1100. Refer to page 54 for instructions on using the automated telephone registration system.

In-Person Registration

Matriculating SPD students may register in person beginning on Friday, April 23, 1999. Non-matriculating (GSP) students may register beginning on Monday, April 26, 1999.

Regular registration hours are: Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, 8:30 am to 4:00 pm. On Tuesday, the Administration Lobby Offices are open from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm.

At the Office of Registrar (Administration Building, second floor lobby), you will be encouraged to use the telephones in the lobby area to process your registration. Registrar personnel will provide assistance, if needed. At your request, you may receive a computer-generated receipt confirming registration and indicating billing information.

Fax Registration

Continuing SPD graduate students who registered for courses within the last year may register by fax. If you have registration blocks on your records (such as financial, traffic, and health) you are not eligible to register until the situation is resolved and the blocks are removed. Faxed registration requests must be received in the SPD office no later than Friday, May 28, 1999. You will be mailed a bill indicating due dates for mail and in-person payments.

Note: Only continuing SPD graduate students may register by fax. New students must register in person or by telephone.

Late Registration

The late registration period begins on the first day of classes, Wednesday, September 1 and ends Wednesday, September 15, 1999. A late registration fee of $30 will be charged. You must obtain the instructor's signature on a registration adjustment form only if the class is closed (filled to capacity). Then, you should do the following:

1. Submit your registration adjustment form to the Office of Registrar (Administration Building, second floor).

2. Go to the Bursar's windows and pay current fees and any previous balance. You may charge your registration to VISA, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express, or pay by cash or check.

Since no written permission is required (unless stated in the schedule or bulletin as a prerequisite) for courses with available seats, you may continue to use the telephone system to late register. You will be sent a bill by the Office of Student Accounts.
Off-Campus Registration

Off-campus courses close quickly and on-site registration is on a space-available basis only. It is strongly recommended that students register in person or by telephone prior to the start of class. Students who cannot register prior to the first meeting of an off-campus course should call SPD to inquire about enrollment possibilities at extension sites.

Students whose enrollment can be accepted at the first meeting of an off-campus course will be billed at a later date by the Office of Registrar. Questions about billing should be directed to the Office of Student Accounts. Their phone number is 516-632-6175.

Changes in Registration and Withdrawals

Please note that neither non-attendance, non-payment, nor notification to an instructor constitutes official withdrawal.

If you wish to make a change in your registration or withdraw from a course, you must follow the University's and SPD's procedures. Changes in registration or withdrawal does not relieve you of financial liability to the University. Please refer to refund policy and "Tuition Liability Schedule" on page 22.

Cancellation of Registration (Deletion of All Courses)

Before the semester begins and through Wednesday, September 15, 1999, you may cancel (delete) registration from your academic record. The official cancellation date will be used to determine any financial liability (see "Tuition Liability Schedule"). Submit a completed withdrawal form to the Office of Registrar to drop courses. If a refund is involved, submit a letter to the Office of Student Accounts as well.

Courses dropped by Wednesday, September 15 will be deleted from your record. You will, however, be liable for part of the tuition for any course dropped after September 8, 1999. After September 15, 1999, you must petition SPD's Committee on Academic Standing to add courses. See below for withdrawal procedures.

Withdrawal from One Course or a Portion of a Semester's Registration

From Thursday, September 16, 1999 through October 29, 1999, you may withdraw from courses if registered for more than one. A Registration Adjustment form obtained from the SPD Office or the Office of Registrar must be submitted to the Office of Registrar with appropriate signatures for processing. A receipt will be generated showing a W after the course title. The W after the course title will also appear on your academic record. Depending on your withdrawal date, you may request a partial tuition refund from the Office of Registrar. Refer to the "Tuition Liability Schedule" on page 22 for information.

After October 29, 1999, you must submit a petition to SPD's Committee on Academic Standing to request permission to withdraw from individual courses. You must also include documentation to explain the reasons the withdrawal was not processed within the allowed dates and before the published deadline.

Procedure for Withdrawal from All Courses (Withdrawal from the University)

From Thursday, September 16, through October 29, 1999, you may withdraw from all courses that comprise your registration. Complete and submit to the Office of Registrar for processing a Withdrawal from the University form. Depending on your withdrawal date, you may request a partial tuition refund from the Office of Registrar. Refer to the "Tuition Liability Schedule" on page 22 for information.

After October 29, 1999, you must submit a petition to the SPD Committee on Academic Standing to request permission to withdraw from the University. You must provide documentation to explain why the withdrawal was not processed within the allowed dates and before the published deadline.

Registering for Maximum Number of Credits

Eighteen credit hours per semester is the maximum load for an SPD student. Students who register for 1-11 credits are considered part-time, and those taking 12-18 credits are full-time.

Registration in Non-SPD Graduate Courses

If you wish to register for a graduate course other than one having CE in the course designation, you are advised to obtain the appropriate permission. Your failure to obtain permission may result in deregistration from that course.

Registration in Undergraduate Courses

No undergraduate courses (Stony Brook courses numbered 100-499) may be used to meet the requirements for any graduate degree or graduate certificate program. However, undergraduate courses may be taken at the student's discretion.

Registering for Repetitive Credit

Don't register for a course with the same number and title as a course you have previously taken, unless the description clearly states that it may be taken for repetitive credit, or if it is a special topics course whose subtitle is different each time it is taken. Example: CEH 568 Great Traditions in Music.

If you fail a course, you may repeat it. However, a passing grade in the repeated course will not eliminate the original failing grade; both will be included in calculating your cumulative grade point average on your official graduate record. You may elect to retake one course for which a failing grade was earned. If you earn a passing grade in the repeated course, you may petition SPD's Committee on Academic Standing to request an unofficial substitution of the passing grade for the failing grade in the calculation of the cumulative GPA.

Registering for Graduate Courses as an Undergraduate

If you are an advanced undergraduate with a superior academic record and wish to enroll in up to six credits of graduate work, you may do so. Permission of the course instructor and either the Graduate School or SPD (depending on which office is responsible for the course) is required. You must discuss your intention to take graduate courses with your advisors and/or undergraduate program directors to assess whether the credits will be applicable to your undergraduate degree requirements.

Courses numbered 500 or above cannot be used to fulfill distribution requirements or used for certain major requirements. No undergraduate student may register for a total of more than six graduate credits. Undergraduates seeking graduate credit for graduate courses must be enrolled in a bachelor's/master's combined degree program or have been accepted for graduate study at Stony Brook during their senior year.
You must request permission to register for graduate courses, using form SUSB 3065, available from SPD or the Graduate School, and demonstrate you will not exceed the six-credit limit before attempting to register for any graduate or SPD course. Permission is granted by SPD for SPD courses only on a space-available basis during the Final Registration week. Present a copy of form SUSB 3065 with all of the necessary signatures to the Office of Registrar when registering for the course.

Policies and Procedures

Transferring Graduate Credits From Other Institutions

Students interested in transferring credits to Stony Brook must adhere to the following criteria:

1. You may transfer a maximum of six graduate credits toward an SPD degree or three graduate credits toward an advanced graduate certificate. These credits must be from institutions authorized by recognized accrediting agencies to grant graduate degrees, and they must be applicable to graduate degree or certificate programs offered by these institutions as well as those of SUNY Stony Brook.

2. Credits must be graduate level and in keeping with the graduate studies offered at Stony Brook.

3. Credits must carry the grade of B or better (B- grades are not acceptable). Pass or Satisfactory grades are not transferable unless these grades can be substantiated in writing by the former institution as being at least B quality. The grades for credits transferred from other institutions are not included in any calculation of your grade point average or in any evaluation of your academic standing in an SPD program.

4. Credits cannot be more than five years old at the time of your admission or readmission to matriculated status.

5. Credits used to fulfill a requirement for either a baccalaureate or another graduate diploma, certificate, or degree may not be transferred toward an SPD program.

6. Transferred courses cannot be used to satisfy the Liberal Studies course requirements in the MAR/LS degree or the Core requirement in the MPS degree. SPD's transfer credit advisor will determine how transferred credits may be applied toward other SPD program requirements.

7. If a transferred course has been determined to have a Stony Brook equivalent, this equivalent course may not be taken for credit toward an SPD degree or advanced certificate.

8. No credits may be transferred from another institution until you have completed at least one graduate course as an SPD student.

9. After admission to an SPD program, prior approval must be obtained from the transfer credit advisor to take courses at another institution for SPD credit.

10. Credits earned through correspondence, travel, or video courses, or credits earned through examination may not be transferred. Credits earned through other specially formatted programs (those that are not offered in a traditional semester-long format) may be considered for transfer provided they comply with all of the above transfer policies. In addition, you must supplement a completed Transfer Credit Request form with additional information as follows: a complete syllabus, a list of required text(s) and outside readings, a complete schedule of class meetings (including dates, times, and locations) and the basis for student evaluation.

Forms to request the transfer of credits or prior approval to do so are available in the SPD office or from the school's academic advisors.

Credit Limitations

Credits earned as a GSP Student

The maximum number of graduate credits earned at Stony Brook as a non-matriculated student (GSP) that can be applied toward the requirements of an SPD degree or advanced certificate is 12.

Independent Study (CED 599)

A maximum of six credits of any independent study, directed readings, research courses, and noncredit seminars may be counted toward an SPD master's degree (the limit for an advanced graduate certificate is three credits), unless specific prior approval is obtained from the SPD Committee on Academic Standing through a formal petition requesting leave to exceed this limit. This petition must be specific regarding the rationale and reason for such a request and have an accompanying letter from the faculty member of record fully explaining the need to exceed this limit.

Credits More Than 5 Years Old

At the written request of returning students, Stony Brook graduate courses that are over five years old when a student is admitted or readmitted to an SPD degree program will be individually reviewed by appropriate department/faculty to determine if they may be applied toward current SPD degree requirements. Grades in such courses must be B- or higher. A course that is both over five years old when a student is admitted or readmitted to an SPD degree program and carries a grade below B- is ineligible for review and cannot be used to satisfy SPD program requirements.

Students requesting an individual review of such courses are required to have a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or higher.

Duplicate Credit

Matriculated Stony Brook graduate students who complete graduate courses in programs other than SPD degrees or certificates, may petition SPD's Committee on Academic Standing to have these courses included in an SPD program provided that the courses have not been used to complete another Stony Brook graduate diploma, certificate, or degree of the same level. (For instance, students who have completed a graduate certificate in Human Resource Management may not use courses within this certificate for another certificate. Students who complete one master's degree may not use the same credits for another.) These courses must carry grades of B- or higher and be relevant to SPD degree and certificate requirements.

Similarly, courses used for one SPD credential may not be included in another SPD credential earned at the same level.

Workloads

SPD's programs are graduate level, with high expectations and a considerable workload. You should allow at least the traditional three hours of study/preparation for each class contact hour each week. Access to libraries to conduct research is necessary for many courses and should be considered when planning a schedule and curriculum.

Grading System

Graduate students are graded using the following system:

- A = 4.00
- B+ = 3.33
- B = 3.00
- C+ = 2.33
- C = 2.00
- F = 0.00
- B- = 1.67
- C- = 1.00
- P/NC (Pass/No Credit) is an approved grade for graduate students. However, the following marks may be awarded at the end of the semester:

1 (Incomplete): This is an interim grade optionally given by instructors to allow you extra time to complete course requirements after the end of classes. You are not automatically entitled to this privilege. Incompletes are usually granted only upon evidence that good cause (serious, protracted illness, for example) prevented completion of course requirements. Incompletes must be approved by the instructor before the end of the semester.
The grade of "I" must be resolved by a deadline set by the instructor or the deadline cited in SPD's academic calendar, whichever comes first. In granting a grade of I, the instructor signifies a willingness to receive student work after a class has ended and to assign grades within deadlines. If you receive an Incomplete and do not complete the work necessary to remove it by the deadline set, the I will automatically be changed to a failing grade, F (Lapsed Incomplete).

NR (No Record): An instructor may assign a mark of NR to students who have never, to the instructor's knowledge, participated in the course in any way. An NR report is not to be interpreted as a grade, but only as an indication of a state of affairs that requires prompt resolution, leading either to the removal of the course from your program (whenever it appears as a result of an error) or to the assignment of a grade. It is your responsibility to resolve the problem. If the problem is not resolved by the deadlines listed in the school's academic calendar for removing the NR report, the NR will remain on your academic record.

S (Satisfactory): Indicates passing work in those courses, so designated by a department, where the normal mode of evaluation is impractical. This grade does not affect cumulative GPA.

U (Unsatisfactory): Indicates unsatisfactory work in those courses, so designated by a department, where the normal mode of evaluation is impractical. This grade does not affect cumulative GPA.

W (Withdrawal): Indicates withdrawal from a course after the deadline for deletions; it carries no further academic implication. Dates affecting the assignment of W are published in SPD's academic calendar.

Grades appearing on your academic record may not be changed after one calendar year from the end of the term in which the grade was incurred. Final grades appearing on your academic transcript at the time of your graduation cannot be changed after the graduation date. Graduate cumulative grade point averages will be based on all graduate courses taken at Stony Brook, including those taken as GSF students and as other Stony Brook graduate majors.

Transcripts and Reporting of Grades

Grades are accessible by telephone as soon as they are posted after each semester. Call 516-632-1100 and choose option 2.

Grade reports are mailed by the Registrar to your home address as soon as possible after the end of each semester.

You may obtain official transcripts from the Office of Registrar. Written requests should be sent to the Bursar, Box 619, accompanied by a $5 fee (check payable to SUNY Stony Brook.) Forms for requesting transcripts are also available from the Bursar and the SPD offices.

University policy does not allow staff to give grades over the telephone.

Academic Probation

Part-time students must achieve a 3.00 GPA after earning nine credits as a matriculated graduate student. If, after attempting nine credits, your cumulative GPA is below 3.00, you are placed on academic probation. You may take six more credits within two more semesters. If a 3.00 is not achieved, you are normally not permitted to re-enroll.

Full-time students are placed on academic probation when their cumulative GPA falls below 3.00. If, after being notified in writing of probation, you achieve a GPA of 3.00 by the end of the next semester, you return to regular status. If the GPA is still below 3.00 after one semester on probation, you remain on probation and may continue for one additional semester. If still below 3.00 by the end of the second semester on probation, you normally will not be permitted to re-enroll.

Further details on SPD's academic probation policy are available in the SPD Office.

Academic Honesty

The University considers intellectual honesty to be the cornerstone of all academic and scholarly work and views any form of academic dishonesty as an extremely serious matter. Graduate students may be dismissed upon proof of violation of professional standards and academic honesty.

Academic dishonesty includes any act that is designed to obtain fraudulently, either for oneself or for someone else, academic credit, grades, or other recognition that is not properly earned. Some typical examples are:

1. Cheating on an examination by the use of books, notes, or other aids when these are not permitted, or by copying from another student.
2. Submission of the same paper in more than one course without informing the instructor(s).
3. Collaboration: two or more students helping each other on an examination or assignment when this is not permitted.
4. Use of fakers: sitting in for another student at an examination, or permitting someone else to sit in for you.

5. Plagiarism: the submission of another's work as your own original work without proper acknowledgment of the source.
6. Falsifying documents or records related to credit, grades, change of status forms (e.g., adds and drops), and other academic matters.
7. Altering an examination or paper after it has been graded for the purpose of fraudulently requesting a revision of the grade.
8. Theft or destruction of academic or scholarly resources.

For detailed information, a copy of SPD's "Policies and Procedures Governing Academic Dishonesty" may be obtained from the SPD Office.

Standards of Conduct

The University expects cooperation from all its students in developing and maintaining high standards of scholarship and conduct.

You are expected to meet academic requirements and financial obligations, as specified throughout this Bulletin, in order to remain in good standing. Certain non-academic rules and regulations must also be observed.

The University wishes to emphasize its policy that all students are subject to the rules and regulations of the University currently in effect or which, from time to time, are put into effect by the appropriate authorities of the University. In accepting admission, you indicate willingness to subscribe to and be governed by these rules and regulations and acknowledge the right of the University to take such disciplinary action, including suspension and/or dismissal, as deemed appropriate. University authorities will take action in accordance with due process.

Maintenance of Public Order

The University wishes to maintain public order appropriate for a University campus without limiting or restricting the freedom of speech or peaceful assembly of the students, faculty, or administration. The University has, therefore, issued the University Student Conduct Code, Alcohol Policy, and Rules of Public Order to ensure that the rights of others are protected and to set forth prohibited conduct.

For a copy of this publication, contact the Office of the Student Judicial, Administration Building, room 347.

Telephone: 516-632-5705.
Financial Information

SPD does not provide scholarships or other financial support to its students.

Financial Charges

All fees and charges are to be paid in full or properly deferred by the billing date indicated on a statement mailed to you after registration. Failure to satisfy financial obligations will prevent you from receiving academic credit, transcripts, diplomas, and certifications, as well as registering for future semesters. All published fees and charges may be subject to change without prior notice. The Time Option Payment Plan (TIPP), provided by the Office of Student Accounts, offers the option of paying by installments. Questions regarding any financial matter should be directed to the Office of Student Accounts at 516-632-6175.

Financial Liability

When you register by mail, telephone, or in person, assume you are registered, whether or not you receive a confirmation or bill. You will be held financially liable for your registration unless it is officially canceled through the Office of Registrar or SPD.

Neither non-attendance nor non-payment constitutes official cancellation or withdrawal. Students may request cancellation or withdrawal of registration by calling the automated telephone system during the add/drop period, by writing or faxing SPD, or by obtaining appropriate forms and signatures from SPD staff and then submitting these to the Office of Registrar.

The date you call or submit in-person requests to cancel your registration or withdraw from a course determines your eligibility for a refund. Any refunds are made in accordance with the refund policy.

Refund Policy

Students who officially withdraw from the University or reduce the number of credits for which they are registered may be entitled to a prorated refund of paid tuition or a prorated adjustment of tuition charges billed based on the following schedule. Fee charges billed will not be removed or refunded after the first week of classes.

All refund requests must be sent to:

Office of Student Accounts
254 Administration Building
State University of New York at Stony Brook
Stony Brook, NY. 11794-1301

The first day of classes is based on the published academic calendar. Students attending evening classes that meet for the first time on the last day of the 100% refund period will have a one-day grace period to withdraw from the class and still be eligible for a full refund.

Withdrawals

A student withdrawing shall be responsible for payment of tuition and all fees in accordance with the above liability schedule. A student can petition the refund policy provided the student has not completed more than one-half of the term and the student will not receive any academic credit for any classes enrolled for that term. The student must submit in writing a request for full removal of tuition charges within one year of the end of the term for which the tuition and fees were incurred.

Cancellations

A student who is given permission to cancel his/her registration shall be responsible for payments of tuition and all fees in accordance with the tuition liability schedule within one year of the end of the term for which the tuition and fees were incurred at the University.

Approved Academic Petitions will not result in removal or adjustments of tuition and fee charges.

To be eligible for financial review, ONLY the following criteria will be accepted:

- Attending another SUNY or New York State Community College
- Military Service

Detailed documentation must be submitted. No refunds will be considered for students who have completed more than one-half of the term.

Dismissals

A student who is dismissed for academic or disciplinary reasons prior to the end of an academic term shall be liable for tuition and fees due for the term according to the tuition liability schedule.

Financial Aid Implications

Financial aid recipients who are withdrawing from the University or changing their status from full-time to part-time must consult with a financial aid counselor regarding the impact of these actions on their financial aid awards. These students are urged to make an appointment with a financial aid counselor by calling 516-632-6840 or by visiting the Office of Financial Aid and Student Employment, 250 Administration Building.

Application Fees

All application fees are paid to SPD and are non-refundable.

Non-matriculated/GSP Application. The fee is $15, payable each time you submit an application to SPD for eligibility to register as a graduate special student (GSP). This payment must be submitted to the SPD Office (check or credit card) separate from any other payment to the University. It cannot be included in the collective payment for tuition and other University fees.

Matriculation/Application. The fee is $50, payable at the time you submit an application to matriculate into a graduate degree or advanced graduate certificate program. The fee is collected at the formal orientation required for admission to an SPD graduate degree program, or in the case of the MATs and advanced graduate certificates, when the application is submitted.

Registration Fees

Pay all registration fees and tuition to the Bursar. SPD does not collect registration fees and tuition. Tuition and fees may be charged to VISA, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express. All fees are non-refundable (unless the student withdraws during the first week of classes). All published fees and charges are subject to change without notice. If you have any questions about fees, please call the Office of Student Accounts, 516-632-6175.

College Fee

Required of all students.
85 cents per credit part-time (1-11 credits) $12.50 per semester full-time (12+ credits)

Student Activity Fee

$5 part-time (1-11 credits) $18.50 full-time (12+ credits)
General GSP Guidelines:

- Departmental permission for graduate non-SPD courses is required prior to registration.
- Enrollment in a department's graduate courses does not entitle a GSP student to candidacy for the department's degree. You must formally apply and be admitted to the degree program.
- The maximum number of graduate credits that you may earn as a GSP student that may later be considered for any Stony Brook graduate degree or certificate is 12.
- You are advised to register early for the best course selection. Before registering, check an SPD Update, which lists course cancellations, closings, additions, and other changes, or refer to the Stony Brook web page (www.sunysb.edu).

There is no guarantee that instructors will sign students into courses that are filled to capacity. You should register for an alternate course if your first choice is closed.

- Graduate cumulative grade point averages will be based on all graduate courses taken at Stony Brook, including those taken as a GSP student and as any other Stony Brook graduate major.
- Keep all Stony Brook records, including payment and registration receipts, grade reports, and each semester's SPD Bulletin for reference and verification.
- GSP students are usually not eligible for financial aid. Check with the Financial Aid Office (516-632-6840).
- Tuition rates for GSP students are based on the course level.

As a GSP student, you may register for any graduate or undergraduate course as long as you have the stated prerequisites. If you anticipate being accepted into a graduate program at Stony Brook, check in advance with the appropriate department to make sure the course(s) can be applied to the graduate degree you seek.

Pre-Medical/Pre-Dental Preparation for Students with Degree

Post-baccalaureate students may take course work at Stony Brook to prepare for careers in medicine, dentistry, or other health-related fields. Under-prepared students (who do not have the requisite math and science courses) may make up these deficiencies by taking undergraduate courses as a GSP. This course work, coupled with the advisement resources of the Office of Undergraduate Academic Affairs (Melville Library, second floor, room E260) will help prepare you for the application process. If you take most of your required pre-professional courses at Stony Brook, the Faculty Committee on Health Professions will interview you and write a letter of evaluation.

Information: 516-632-7080.

U.S. Veterans

SPD's graduate programs have been approved for the training of veterans and other eligible persons in accordance with the provisions of Section 3675, title 38, U.S. Code. For further information, contact the Division of Veterans' Affairs, 5 Empire State Plaza, Suite 2836, Albany, NY 12223-1551.

Academic Advising

All applicants applying to the MA/LS or MPS program must attend an academic orientation session at the time of application in order to develop a program of study and to review degree requirements. Call 516-632-7050 to schedule an orientation session.

Once you are admitted to either the MA/LS or MPS program, advisement appointments are available either by phone or in person. To schedule an advisement appointment, call 516-632-7050.

Applicants for the MAT degrees are advised about program requirements by the directors of each MAT program. For advisement concerning the MAT's in English, Foreign Language, Science, and Social Studies, please refer to pages 5-9 for telephone numbers of each program director.

Students wishing advisement in SPD's advanced graduate certificate programs should schedule an appointment with an advisor by calling 516-632-7050. For either of the School Administration certificate programs, call 516-632-7065.

Although you may schedule appointments with advisors as needed throughout your program of study, you are individually responsible for meeting program requirements.

Automated Telephone System

Many student services are available through the voice response/telephone services system at the university. In order to access the options listed below, call either of the following phone numbers and respond to the voice prompts.

From off-campus: 516-632-1100
From on-campus: 2-1100

To access the phone system, a student will need his/her university ID (social security) number and a PIN number (which is initially the student's six-digit birthdate, which should be changed and protected after its first usage.)

After dialing, the caller will hear the following options for the main menu:

1. Registration. Register for courses; add/drop courses; change course selections; change the Pass/No credit option; confirm classes (including locations); and change PIN number.

2. Grades. Grades for the previous semester.

3. Financial Aid. Information on financial aid application and award status; general information on grants, federal work study, and other student employment opportunities, loans, and scholarships; code numbers and information on how to apply for financial aid; financial aid transcripts and application materials; and office information, including business hours.

4. Account Information and Bill Payment. Detailed itemization of the current semester's bill and any outstanding balances; and pay bill via VISA, Mastercard, Discover or American Express.

After pressing the desired number, the caller will receive guidance in making choices through each option.
Academic Information and Support Services

Applications

Prospective students for School of Professional Development (SPD) programs may obtain applications by writing, calling, or visiting. SPD's main office is located at N201 Ward Melville Social and Behavioral Sciences Building, SUNY at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, NY 11794-4310 (telephone 516-632-7050). Applications may also be requested on-line at www.sunyweb.edu/spd/. To avoid delays in processing, you should tend to all application procedures well in advance of the semester in which you wish to begin classes.

Matriculated Status

For information on admission requirements for each of SPD's graduate credit programs, refer to pages 4-19.

If you have academic deficiencies and seek to enter a graduate program, you will be advised how to meet admission requirements through prerequisite study.

If you have below a 2.75 grade point average (GPA), you will be considered for provisional admission. Provisionally admitted part-time students must achieve a 3.00 GPA after attempting six graduate credits. Full-time students (12 or more credits) must achieve a 3.00 after their first semester. If a 3.00 GPA is not achieved as above, you normally will not be permitted to re-enroll.

International Student Applicants

Consult the Office of International Student and Scholar Services (516-632-7040) for detailed application information.

In addition to the application and admissions requirements listed above, students who are not citizens or permanent residents of the United States and who wish to become matriculated in a graduate degree or advanced certificate program must meet the following requirements to receive documents authorizing a student visa status:

English Proficiency. You must demonstrate proficiency in reading, writing, and speaking English, as well as comprehension of the spoken language, if your first or native language is not English or if you have pursued higher education in a non-English-speaking country. You can do this by presenting a score of at least 550 (600 if students wish to be considered for teaching assistantship) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), or a score of 240 on the Test of Spoken English (TSE).

These tests are given at centers throughout the world on several dates each year. The testing schedule and registration information can be obtained by writing to Educational Testing Service, Princeton, NJ 08540, USA.

Financial Verification. You must provide the University with verification that the necessary funds are available to finance your education and living expenses at Stony Brook. University Financial Affidavit Form SUSB ISA must be completed and submitted with appropriate documentation for this purpose, along with the application for admission and the application fee.

Visa Authorization. Government regulations require that you attend the institution that issues the visa document you use to enter the U.S. You must take a full course of study of at least 12 credits each semester. You must also consult with an international student advisor about any anticipated changes in student status that affects your status.

Mandatory Health Insurance. For information regarding SUNY's mandatory student health insurance, contact the Student Health Insurance Office in the West Campus Health Service (Innpatient). The phone number is 516-632-8084.

Non-Matriculated Status: Graduate Special Student (GSP) Applicants

SPD represents the University's (West Campus) non-matriculating GSP students. We are available to help students with administrative or academic problems not related to admission to another department's graduate degree program. If you have a baccalaureate degree and are interested in taking undergraduate or graduate courses at Stony Brook, without working toward a degree, you may apply for admission as a non-matriculated graduate special (GSP) student.

US Citizens

1. Complete a Student Information Form indicating that a baccalaureate degree has been awarded. Use the application form in the insert or obtain one by calling SPD.
2. Pay $15 application fee.
3. Complete Immunization Record.
4. Submit fee and forms to the SPD Office.

International Students

In addition to the procedures for U.S. citizens above, international students must also:

- Obtain a visa verification form from the Office of International Student and Scholar Services to submit to SPD. Call 516-632-7040.
- Apply for mandatory health insurance.

Permanent US Residents

In addition to the procedures for U.S. citizens above, permanent residents must present an original alien registration (green) card and show proof of NYS residency.

STATEMENT OF Student Responsibility

Students themselves are responsible for reviewing, understanding, and abiding by the University's regulations, procedures, requirements, and deadlines as described in all official publications. These include the Undergraduate Bulletin (and supplements), Summer Sessions Bulletin, SPD Bulletin, Graduate Bulletin, Student Handbook, and Class Schedules.

20 FALL 1999 SPD BULLETIN
CED 595 Project Seminar  (3 credits)

Each student is required to conduct an individual research project on a topic of special academic interest or professional relevance. The topic must be approved by the program director and completed under the direction of a faculty member.

Scheduling Note: The preceding courses are offered regularly during the fall and spring semesters. Although summer session will offer some graduate courses that can be applied toward this program, students should plan on meeting most course requirements during the regular academic year.

Related courses used to fulfill requirements for another certificate, master's, or other advanced degree may not be used to fulfill course requirements for this certificate. If courses were taken that duplicate courses within this certificate program, appropriate substitutions will be made upon advise and consent of the program director. Under any circumstances, the student must complete the total number of credits prescribed for this program.

Note

Courses in this Advanced Certificate Program can be used to complete some requirements toward the Ed.D at St. John's University.

In addition, coursework in this program is directly transferable to Hofstra University's (Ed.D) in Educational Administration.

For information and/or application forms relating to the St. John's University program, call 718-990-6207.

For further information and/or application forms relating to Hofstra's program, call 516-463-5758.

Applying to the Post-Graduate Certificate Programs

You are expected to have a thorough grounding in an academic subject area and must have completed professional courses in teacher education. You must possess the intellectual skills for advanced graduate course work (at least a "B" average in prior graduate studies) and, in an essay to be included in the application packet, must display the interest and ability to become an effective administrator.

Students entering the School Administration and Supervision and School District Administration advanced graduate certificate programs must have the following for admission: a master's degree and a provisional teachers' license with a minimum of three years of teaching, administrative, supervisory, or pupil personnel service experience, excluding civil service.

Please submit the following:

1. An official SPD application form.
2. An essay (no more than two typewritten, double-spaced pages) outlining your background, goals, objectives, and philosophy of leadership.
3. Three letters of recommendation, at least two of which must be from school supervisory personnel or administrators who have a thorough knowledge of whether you have the temperament and disposition to become an effective leader.
4. An official copy of all previous college transcripts from regionally accredited institutions. Graduate transcripts must indicate that you were awarded a master's degree.
5. A letter from your employer stating that you have had three years of teaching, administrative, supervisory, or pupil personnel services experience, excluding civil service.
6. A non-refundable application fee of $50.
7. Immunization Record (see insert) to the Director of Student Health Services.

School Administrator and Supervisor

(HEGIS 0828) School teachers interested in pursuing a challenge beyond the classroom are invited to apply for this advanced graduate certificate program, which provides an up-to-date curriculum that can prepare you for such advanced positions as building principal, assistant building principal, department chairperson, guidance department chairperson, or dean of students. The program is offered in collaboration with the University’s Center for Excellence and Innovation in Education. The prerequisite for admission into this program is a master’s degree.

Course of Study

This certificate program consists of 10 three-credit courses, distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

Foundations (9 credits)

- CEQ 501 Educational Administrative Theory I
- CEQ 502 Educational Administrative Theory II
- CEQ 503 Educational Administrative Practice

Required Courses (9 credits)

- CEQ 541 School Building Administration
- CEQ 528 School Law
- CEQ 555 Supervision of Instruction

Elective (3 credits)

Course may be selected from an approved list in consultation with the program director.

Internship and Seminar (6 credits)

- CEQ 551 Internship in School Building Administration
- CEQ 552 Internship Seminar

CED 595 Project Seminar (3 credits)

Each student is required to conduct an individual research project on a topic of special academic interest or professional relevance. The topic must be approved by the program director and completed under the direction of a faculty member.

Scheduling Note: The preceding courses are offered regularly during the fall and spring semesters. Although summer session will offer some graduate courses that can be applied toward this program, students should plan on meeting most course requirements during the regular academic year.

Course may be selected from an approved list in consultation with the program director.

Internship and Seminar (6 credits)

- CEQ 561 Internship in School District Administration
- CEQ 562 Internship Seminar
Waste Management

(HEGIS 0420) This program, designed for professionals who confront the complex problems of waste management and disposal, will provide the educational background necessary to make informed decisions on these often controversial matters.

This certificate is especially important for those who consider access to the most current expertise in waste management essential to working effectively in their careers or public service activities. It is structured to meet the immediate demands for waste management solutions and the more long-range goal of promoting the environmental and economic welfare of the region. The program is offered in collaboration with the Waste Management Institute, part of the University's world-renowned Marine Sciences Research Center.

This advanced graduate certificate articulates with the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies or the Master of Professional Studies through SPD. In addition, this certificate articulates with the master's degree in Marine Environmental Sciences.

To Apply
1. Call the SPD office at 516-632-7050 to obtain an application.
2. Submit the application and non-refundable $50 application fee.
3. Include with your application an official transcript (in a sealed envelope), which must indicate that a bachelor's degree has been awarded.

If your official transcript indicates an undergraduate cumulative GPA below 2.8, you will be considered for provisional admission. Provisionally admitted part-time students must achieve a 3.00 after attempting six graduate credits (applicable to their program) at Stony Brook. Full-time students (12 or more credits) must achieve a 3.00 after their first semester. If a 3.00 GPA is not achieved as above, students normally will not be permitted to re-enroll.
4. Submit Immunization Record (see insert) to Student Health Services.

FALL 1999 COURSES
The following Waste Management courses are being offered this semester:
- Marine Pollution (p. 49)
- Introduction to Risk Assessment and Management (p. 49)
- Diagnosis of Environmental Disputes (p. 48)

Complete registration information for new matriculating students can be found in the Academic and Student Services section beginning on page 20.
A GSP Registration Form is located in the insert.

Course of Study
This certificate program consists of 6 three-credit courses, distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

Core Requirement (6 credits)
CEY 501/MAR 514 Waste Management Issues and the Marine Environment
CEY 503/MAR 536 Environmental Law

Area Courses (12 credits)
At least 3 credits must be selected from Area C.

AREA C COURSES
CEY 504/MAR 517 Emerging Technology in Solid Waste Management
CEY 505/MAR 518 Environmental Engineering
CEY 506 Recycling Equipment and Technology
CEY 507/MAR 521 Ground Water Problems
CEY 512/MAR 512 Marine Pollution
CEY 522/MAR 522 Environmental Toxicology
CEY 557/MAR 557 Introduction to Risk Assessment and Management
CEY 597/EST 597 Waste Management: Systems and Principles

AREA D COURSES
CEY 502/MAR 507 History of Waste Management
CEY 509/MAR 525 Environment and Public Health
CEY 513 The Economics of Waste Management
CEY 594/EST 594 Diagnosis of Environmental Disputes
EST 586 Environmental and Waste Management in Business and Industry
EST 595 Principles of Environmental Systems Analysis

Software Engineering

(HEGIS 0799): Do you have a good foundation in computer science, but feel you'd like to strengthen your skills in particular applications? In collaboration with Stony Brook's top-ranked Department of Computer Science, we offer a program that emphasizes the design and implementation of software systems.

Drawn from the master's degree curriculum of the Department of Computer Science, this program articulates with its Master of Science in Computer Science and the MA/LS offered through SPD.

Students with requisite backgrounds will be allowed to enroll in 600-level courses, where appropriate. Students may also have the opportunity to develop their own research projects under the guidance of a professor or advisor.

Need Updating? If your educational or professional background lacks computer science expertise, please plan on taking remedial courses that might include a mathematics background (CSE 230 C and UNIX) and/or CSE 500, which is a data structures course in C++. Also check "Advice to Applicants" on the web page of the Department of Computer Science (see "additional information" on the next page). Only CSE 500 will count toward certificate credits.

To Apply

1. Call the SPD office at 516-632-7050 to obtain an application.
2. Submit the application and non-refundable $50 application fee.
3. Include with your application an official transcript (in a sealed envelope), which must indicate that a bachelor's degree has been awarded.

In addition, a baccalaureate degree in natural science, computer science, mathematics, or engineering is expected, with a GPA of 3.0. Applicants not meeting these standards may be reconsidered after taking and receiving at least a "B" in recommended remedial courses. If your official transcript indicates an undergraduate cumulative GPA below 3.0, you will be considered for provisional admission.

4. Submit Immunization Record (see insert) to Student Health Services.

Course of Study

This certificate program consists of six three-credit courses, chosen from among CSE 500-level courses. Refer to the University's graduate bulletin for course descriptions.

CSE 500-Level Course Offerings

- CSE 501 Digital System Synthesis
- CSE 502/ESE 545 Computer Architecture
- CSE 504 Compiler Design
- CSE 505 Computing with Logic
- CSE 506 Operating Systems
- CSE 520 Techniques of Software Design
- CSE 525 Fundamentals of Window Systems
- CSE 526 Principles of Programming Languages
- CSE 528 Computer Graphics
- CSE 529/AMS 553 Simulation and Modeling
- CSE 532 Theory of Database Systems
- CSE 533 Computer Network Communication Protocols
- CSE 536 Introduction to User-Interface Development
- CSE 537 Artificial Intelligence
- CSE 539 Expert Systems
- CSE 540 Theory of Computation
- CSE 541 Logic in Computer Science
- CSE 547/AMS 547 Discrete Mathematics
- CSE 548/AMS 542 Analysis of Algorithms
- CSE 555/AMS 545 Computational Geometry
- CSE 564 Visualization

Computer Support Services

Students in this program are welcome to use the University's Computing Center, the central facility for instructional, research, and administrative computing. In addition, the Department of Computer Science maintains three laboratories with top-end computer equipment and software packages.

Additional Information

For additional information or to schedule an appointment with an academic advisor, contact the department of Computer Science at 516-632-8462, or consult the department web page: http://www.cs.sunysb.edu.

Note

If you intend to pursue a master of science degree, please refer to the University's graduate bulletin for any additional admission requirements.
Operations Research  New!

(HEGIS 0507) The Advanced Graduate Certificate in Operations Research provides students with the fundamental tools in applied mathematics for developing protocols for the efficient management of private companies, government agencies and non-profit organizations.

In today's global marketplace, organizations need to be efficient to survive. The Operations Research program will provide formal training in methods of optimization, modeling and statistics used in operations research. The objective of this program is to help individuals assist organizations to make efficient use of their resources so as to maximize efficiency and minimize net cost. Graduates of this program may be able to advance in management and organizational planning positions within their current employment or obtain new employment. It is recommended that applicants to the program hold a bachelors degree in mathematics, engineering or computer science.

The program is offered in collaboration with the Department of Applied Mathematics and Statistics in the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences and articulates with the M.S. in Applied Mathematics and Statistics as well as the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies offered through SPD.

If you intend to pursue a master of science degree, please refer to the University's Graduate Bulletin for any additional admission requirements.

Course of Study

This advanced graduate certificate program consists of 6 three-credit courses, chosen from the graduate curriculum of the Department of Applied Mathematics and Statistics. There are five required courses in the program and one elective course.

The core courses listed below have been carefully chosen to provide a broad-based background as well as in-depth exposure to the applied mathematical and statistical tools required to be successful on the job site.

The elective course can be any graduate course in applied mathematics and statistics, management and policy, or computer science, which has been approved in concert with the student's advisor as appropriate.

Human Resource Management

(HEGIS 051.6) This program will provide the educational background necessary to make informed decisions in management and policy analysis as related to human resource issues. Designed for private- and public-sector managers, industrial relations specialists, union representatives, human resource/personnel managers, and employee training professionals, this program leads directly to a NYS Advanced Graduate Certificate. Eighteen credits may also be used to fulfill concentration requirements in SPD’s Master of Professional Studies program. The program is offered in collaboration with the University’s Center for Human Resource Management and articulates with its Master of Science in Management and Policy.

Course of Study

This certificate program consists of 7 three-credit courses distributed among the areas listed below and at right. For students who are currently matriculated in a master’s degree program, the requirement is 6 three-credit courses. Refer to Stony Brook’s graduate bulletin for course descriptions.

Required Survey Courses (6 credits)

CES 515 Survey, Human Resource Administration
CES 523 Human Resource Management Workshop
CES 516 Survey of Labor Relations

Area Courses (15 credits)

Students must maintain a balance between Labor Relations and Human Resource Administration courses with at least one course from History and Culture. Programs are individually designed in concert with academic advisors.

LABOR RELATIONS

CES 514/MGT 514 Collective Bargaining and Arbitration in the Public Sector
CES 518/MGT 507 Contemporary Issues in Labor Relations
CES 519/MGT 519 Grievance Handling and Arbitration

2. Submit the application and non-refundable $50 application fee.
3. Include with your application an official transcript (in a sealed envelope), which must indicate that a bachelor’s degree has been awarded.

If your official transcript indicates an undergraduate cumulative GPA below 2.75, you will be considered for provisional admission. Provisionally admitted part-time students must achieve a 3.00 after attempting six graduate credits (applicable to their program) at Stony Brook. Full-time students (12 or more credits) must achieve a 3.00 after their first semester. If a 3.00 GPA is not achieved as above, students normally will not be permitted to re-enroll.

4. Submit Immunization Record (see insert) to Student Health Services.

Information Systems Management

(HEGIS 07/02) The Advanced Graduate Certificate Program in Information Systems Management (ISM) is a graduate professional development program which provides an opportunity to combine management education with technical training in specific areas related to information systems.

The program is useful for different types of students. For students without formal training in management of information systems, the program can be used as an introduction to the field. For students having experience in related areas (e.g., managers in business, government and other fields), the program offers specialized courses in selected subjects such as systems analysis and design, database management, telecommunications, expert systems, and personal computing. For technical workers in the information systems field without formal managerial training, the program offers managerial courses.

The ISM program is offered in collaboration with the W. Averell Harriman School for Management and Policy and articulates with its Master of Science in Management and Policy degree program and the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies offered through SPD.

If you intend to pursue a M.S. in Management and Policy, please refer to the University’s Graduate Bulletin for any additional admission requirements.

Course of Study

This program consists of 7 three-credit courses, distributed among the areas listed to the right. For students who are currently matriculated in a master’s degree program, the requirement for this program is 6 three-credit courses. Refer to the Stony Brook graduate bulletin for course descriptions.

Required Survey Course (3 credits)

MGT 517 Management Information Systems

Area Courses (18 credits)

AREA A (9 credits)

MGT 560 Analysis and Design of MIS
MGT 561 Expert Systems for Management
MGT 589 Computational Finance
MGT 562 Telecommunications
MGT 588 Data Bases
MGT 501 Computers in Health Care
CSE 520 Techniques of Software Design
MGT 563 Local Area Network Implementation and Applications
Course of Study

This certificate program consists of 6 three-credit courses, selected from the list below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis. Students select either the Business/Industry or School Track.

Required Courses (12 credits)
- EST 570 Design of Computer Courseware
- EST 571 Computer-Based Educational Technologies
- EST 572/573 Educational Uses of the Internet (choose one)
- CEI 591 Information Highway
- EST 565 Personal Computers in Learning Environments

Professional Tracks (3 credits)
- SCHOOL TRACK (choose one)
  - EST 573 Design of Multimedia Courseware
  - EST 583 Information Society
  - EST 585 Technology in Learning Systems
- BUSINESS/INDUSTRY TRACK (choose one)
  - EST 520 Computer Applications and Problem Solving
  - EMP 509 Management Information Systems
  - EST 530 Electronic Commerce

Elective (3 credits)
- EST 589 Technology-Enhanced Decision Making
- EST 590 Project Seminar in Ed. Computing
- EST 591 Independent Study in Ed. Comp
- EST 596/597 Simulation Models for Technology Systems
- CEI 511 Modern Communications: Technology Systems
- CEN 580 Assessment of Socio-Technological Problems

How to Apply
1. Call the SPD office to obtain an application. Telephone: 516-632-7050.
2. Submit the application and non-refundable $50 application fee.
3. Include with your application an official transcript (in a sealed envelope), which must indicate that a bachelor’s degree has been awarded.

   If your official transcript indicates an undergraduate cumulative GPA below 2.75, you will be considered for provisional admission. Provisionally admitted part-time students must achieve a 3.00 after attempting six graduate credits (applicable to their program) at Stony Brook. Full-time students (12 or more credits) must achieve a 3.00 after their first semester. If a 3.00 GPA is not achieved as above, students normally will not be permitted to re-enroll.

Environmental – Occupational Health and Safety

(HEGIS 1299) Offered in collaboration with the Department of Preventive Medicine, this program is designed to prepare students for professional positions in the detection and management of a wide range of environmental health hazards. Specifically, it will provide a forum for the discussion of local and national health concerns. This certificate articulates with the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies through SPD.

Course of Study

This certificate program consists of 6 three-credit courses, selected from the list below.

- CEM 522 Epidemiology of Environmental and Occupational Disorders
- CEM 525 Occupational Health Principles
- CEM 526 Environmental Health Issues
- CEM 527 Environmental Toxicology
- CEM 538 Industrial Hygiene
- CEM 539 Health Physics
- CEM 541 Occupational and Environmental Accidents and Injuries
- CEM 542 Environmental and Occupational Health Laws and Government Agencies
- CEM 543 Occupational Safety and Health for Special Groups

How to Apply
1. Call the SPD office to obtain an application. Telephone: 516-632-7050.
2. Submit the application and non-refundable $50 application fee.
3. Include with your application an official transcript (in a sealed envelope), which must indicate that a bachelor’s degree has been awarded.

Advanced Graduate Certificate Programs

Coaching

(HEGIS 0835) Educators interested in moving from the classroom to the playing field are invited to take this State Education Department-approved program. The 18-credit curriculum extends the originally approved 12-credit coaching curriculum to include a 3-credit field study practicum and a 3-credit elective course. The certificate program is offered in collaboration with the University’s Division of Physical Education and Athletics and articulates with the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies through SPD.

Course of Study

This certificate program consists of 6 three-credit courses, distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

Required Courses (15 credits)

CEP 502 Principles of Coaching
CEP 507 Administrative Responsibilities in Physical Education and Athletics
CEP 513 Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
CEP 514 The Study of Human Movement
CEP 520 Athletic Coaching Practicum, Field Study

Elective (3 credits)

CEP 500 Sport and Society
CEP 503 History of American Sport, 1830-1990
CEP 506 Physical Education and Sport in Comparative Perspective
CEP 508 Concepts of Leisure, Play, and Recreation in America
CEP 509 Theories of Movement and Dance
CEP 517 Psychology of Sport
CEP 518 Exercise, Nutrition, and Weight Control
CEP 519 Administration of Intramural Sports Programs

How To Apply

1. Call the SPD office to obtain an application. Telephone: 516-632-7050.
2. Submit the application and non-refundable $50 application fee.
3. Include with your application an official transcript (in a sealed envelope), which must indicate that a bachelor’s degree has been awarded.

Additional Information

Please contact the Division of Physical Education and Athletics, 516-632-7215.

Coaching Courses

For the Fall 1999 semester, SPD is offering the following courses which are applicable to the advanced graduate certificate in coaching program:

Administrative Responsibilities in Physical Education and Athletics (CEP 507)

Athletic Coaching Practicum, Field Study (CEP 520)

Psychology of Sport (CEP 517)

Course descriptions can be found on pages 42-43.

Educational Computing

(HEGIS 0799) Educational computing is a diversified area of study which is concerned with the design, implementation and assessment of computer-based technologies to enhance education and training. The advanced graduate certificate program was designed to provide professionals in all fields with the necessary expertise to use technological concepts and devices to improve the performance and management of specific systems.

Students in this program focus on one of two professional tracks – education or business and industry.

Two Tracks, Multiple Opportunities.

Students in this program focus on one of two professional tracks: education or business and industry. Experts in educational computing can find employment in a variety of fields:

- School and colleges, who need highly-skilled faculty and administrators
- State departments of education, who seek curriculum developers and technology planners
- Government and public service agencies, who require trainers for skills development programs
- High-tech manufacturers, who hire experts to develop products for the education market
- Publishing companies, who need educational software developers for the mass market
- Corporations, who hire skilled professionals as instructors and designers of in-house training programs
- Business and organizations, who are expanding their operations to embrace electronic commerce

This certificate is offered in collaboration with the University's Technology and Society Program, part of the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences. Courses from this program may also be used to fulfill requirements for the Master of Science degree in Technology Systems Management as well as for SPD's Master of Arts in Liberal Studies.
MPS Courses for Fall 1999

This semester, the following MPS courses are being offered by the School of Professional Development:

CED 595 Project Seminar (pp. 38, 43)
CED 504 Human Behavior as Rational Action (p. 43)
CED 560 American Democracy (p. 43)
CEN 580 Assessment of Socio-Technological Problems and Issues (pp. 39, 48)
CES 516 Survey, Labor Relations (p. 41)

CES 525 Labor Relations Law (p. 41)
CES 538 Organizational Change and Development (p. 41)
CEX 512 Marine Pollution (p. 49)
CEY 557 Introduction to Risk Assessment and Management (p. 49)
CEY 594 Environmental Disputes (p. 49)

Returning students may register in person, by fax or by using the automated telephone system. Page 54 contains a worksheet for using telephone registration. Complete registration information can be found on pages 23-25 in the Academic Information and Support Services section.

Waste Management

Required Courses (6 credits)

CEY 501/MAR 514 Waste Management Issues
CEY 503/MAR 536 Environmental Law

Area Courses (12 credits - At least three credits must be from Area C.)

AREA C

CEY 504/MAR 517 Emerging Technology in Solid Waste Management
CEY 505/MAR 518 Environmental Engineering
CEY 506 Recycling Equipment and Technology
CEY 507/MAR 521 Ground Water Problems
CEY 512/MAR 512 Marine Pollution
CEY 522/MAR 522 Environmental Toxicology
CEY 557/MAR 557 Introduction to Risk Assessment and Management
CEY 597/EST 597 Waste Management: Systems and Principles

AREA D

CEY 502/MAR 507 History of Waste Mgmt.
CEY 509/MAR 525 Environment & Public Health
CEY 513 Economics of Waste Management
CEY 594/EST 594 Diagnosis of Environmental Disputes
EST 586 Environmental and Waste Management in Business and Industry
EST 595 Principles of Environmental Systems Analysis

To Apply

1. Attend an on-campus group orientation session, at which time all degree requirements will be outlined along with your course of study. To schedule an appointment, call 516-632-7050.

2. Submit a completed application and non-refundable $50 application fee at the orientation.

3. Bring a sealed official copy of your transcript to the orientation showing that a bachelor's degree has been awarded. If you cannot bring your transcript to the orientation, please arrange to have it sent to the School of Professional Development prior to the orientation. If your transcript is not submitted prior to or at the orientation, your admission status will be that of a non-matriculating (GSP) student until a copy of your official transcript is received.

If your official transcript indicates an undergraduate cumulative GPA below 2.75, you will be considered for provisional admission. Provisionally admitted part-time students must achieve a 3.00 after attempting six graduate credits (applicable to their program) at Stony Brook. Full-time students (12 or more credits) must achieve a 3.00 after their first semester. If a 3.00 GPA is not achieved as above, students normally will not be permitted to re-enroll.

4. Submit Immunization Record (see insert) to the Director of Student Health Services.
Master of Professional Studies

(HEGIS 2299) The Master of Professional Studies (MPS) is an interdisciplinary graduate degree program in social science and the professions that offers concentrations in human resource management or waste management. The MPS stresses the application of research and experience to complex social and political issues. The core curriculum focuses on the theoretical structure and methodology of social science disciplines and their application to the professions.

Course of Study

This degree program consists of 10 three-credit courses, distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

MPS Core Curriculum (9 credits)
- 3 credits from Area A
- 3 credits from Area B
- 3 credits from either Area A or B

10 FALL 1999 SPD BULLETIN
Master of Arts in Teaching: Social Studies

(HEGIS 2201) The Master of Arts in Teaching: Social Studies, with a concentration in history, is a course of study leading to New York State certification for teaching social studies in the secondary schools (grades 7-12). The program is offered in collaboration with the University's Department of History and Center for Excellence and Innovation in Education.

Course of Study

This degree program consists of 36 credits, distributed among the areas listed below. Unless otherwise noted, each course counts for three credits. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

HISTORY (15 credits)

HIS 500  Historiography

PLUS 12 credits selected from the following:

HIS 521/522  Seminars: U.S. History (3 or 6 credits)

HIS 501/502  Seminars: European History (3 or 6 credits)

HIS 541/542/02  Seminars: Latin American History (3 or 6 credits)

HIS 562  Topics Seminar: African or Asian History (3 or 6 credits)

PROFESSIONAL STUDIES IN EDUCATION (15 credits)

CEE 505  Education: Theory and Practice

CEE 565  Adolescent Growth and Development

CEE 577  Teaching Social Studies (3 credits; fall semester only)

CEE 578  Social Studies Strategies (3 credits; spring semester only with CEE 577 prerequisite)

CEE 580  Student Teaching Seminar (3 credits; co-requisites: CEQ 581 and 582; prerequisites: CEE 577 and 578)

SUPERVISED STUDENT TEACHING (6 credits)

CEQ 581  Supervised Student Teaching High School Grades 10-12:
  Social Studies
  (co-requisites: CEQ 580 and 582)

CEQ 582  Supervised Student Teaching Middle School Grades 7-9:
  Social Studies
  (co-requisites: CEQ 580 and 581)

WRITTEN PROJECT

Students will be required to complete a four-week social studies teaching module specifically designed for the Supervised Student Teaching project.

To Apply

You must have completed an academic major (a minimum of 36 credits) in history or within another social science major (excluding psychology, education, and linguistics) and at least 15 credits of history, with 9 of these credits at the upper division level. Your transcript must show a minimum GPA of 3.00 in social science studies. You must also demonstrate, through your application and recommendations, that you possess the temperament and disposition to be an effective teacher.

It is also expected that applicants will have little or no previous course work in education or formal classroom teaching experience.

You must submit or have sent to the School of Professional Development:

- Completed MAT application with a $50 non-refundable application fee.
- Three letters of recommendation.
- Official copies of all previous college transcripts.
- Official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (General Test).
- Immunization Record (see insert).

Teacher Certification

While NYSED requires a minimum of 36 credits in the content field in order to be certified, the State University of New York at Stony Brook requires that students must have completed an undergraduate degree with a major in the content field for admission to Stony Brook’s approved graduate level program, the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.). The undergraduate major must be equivalent to a similar major at Stony Brook. If applicants do not possess the required major, they must present 36 credits in the content field in order to be considered for admission to the M.A.T.

In order to be recommended by SUNY Stony Brook for New York State Certification in Science, grades 7-12, students will complete a minimum of fifteen additional credits in the content field at the graduate level within the degree program to fulfill the requirements of the M.A.T. Also, all students must have completed at least one year of college-level study of a foreign language in order to be considered eligible for teacher certification.

Note

The MAT in Social Studies consists of at least three semesters of work (excluding summer session) for the full-time student and a somewhat longer period of time for the part-time student. Applications and supporting documentation (including GRE’s) for the spring semester must be received by November 15; for the fall term, by April 15.

Master of Arts in Teaching: Science

The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT): Chemistry, Earth Science, or Physics programs are designed to lead to New York State certification for teaching in the secondary schools (grades 7-12). The programs are offered in collaboration with the University's departments of Chemistry, Earth Science, and Physics and the Center for Science, Mathematics, and Technology Education.

Course of Study
This degree program consists of 12 three-credit courses, distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

GRADUATE SCIENCE COURSES (15 credits)
Courses are selected with the approval of a departmental advisor. Typical programs include:

Chemistry (HEGIS 1905)
CHE 511 Structural Inorganic Chemistry
CHE 521 Quantum Chemistry I
CHE 523 Chemical Thermodynamics
CHE 590 Master's Term Paper

Earth Science (HEGIS 1917)
GEO 585 Directed Studies: Introduction to Geophysics
AST 561 The Planetary System
GEO 535 Regional Structure and Tectonics
GEO 567 Sedimentary Rocks/Crustal Evolution

Physics (HEGIS 1902)
PHY 525 Current Research Instrumentation
PHY 585 Special Study: Optics and Waves
PHY 585 Special Study: Introductory Quantum Mechanics
PHY 585 Special Study: Electromagnetic Theory

PROFESSIONAL STUDIES IN EDUCATION (15 credits)
CEE 505 Education: Theory and Practice
CEE 565 Adolescent Growth and Development
SCI 510 Introduction to Science Teaching
SCI 520 Science Teaching Methods
SCI 554 Student Teaching Seminar (co-requisites: SCI 551 and 552)

SUPERVISED STUDENT TEACHING (6 credits)
SCI 551 Supervised Student Teaching High School Grades 10-12; Science (co-requisites: SCI 552 and 554)
SCI 552 Supervised Student Teaching Middle School Grades 7-9; Science (co-requisites: SCI 551 and 554)

Project
Students will be required to complete a teaching project approved by the sponsoring department.

To Apply
You are expected to have completed an undergraduate course of study that is substantially equivalent to that of a Stony Brook degree program in the science for which you seek certification. You must also have achieved a minimum 2.75 GPA in all science courses.

In addition, you must demonstrate, through your application and recommendations, that you possess the temperament and disposition to be an effective teacher. Most applicants will have little or no previous course work in education or formal classroom teaching experience.

You should first consult with the appropriate MAT departmental advisor to determine whether you should proceed with the application process.

The departmental advisors are:
Chemistry: Dr. Frank Fowler, 516-632-7938
Earth Science: Dr. Gilbert Hanson, 516-632-8210
Physics: Dr. Clifford Swartz, 516-632-8175
Biology: Dr. William Collins, 516-632-8530

You must submit or have sent to the School of Professional Development:
- Completed MAT application with a $50 non-refundable application fee.
- Three letters of recommendation.
- Official copies of all previous college transcripts.
- Official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (General Test).
- Immunization Record (see insert).

Teacher Certification
While NYSED requires a minimum of 36 credits in the content field in order to be certified, the State University of New York at Stony Brook requires that students must have completed an undergraduate degree with a major in the content field for admission to Stony Brook's registered and approved graduate level program, the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.). The undergraduate major must be equivalent to a similar major at Stony Brook. If applicants do not possess the required major, they must present 36 credits in the content field in order to be considered for admission to the M.A.T.

In order to be recommended by SUNY Stony Brook for New York State Certification in Science, grades 7-12, students will complete a minimum of fifteen additional credits in the content field at the graduate level within the degree program to fulfill the requirement of the M.A.T. Also, all students must have completed at least one year of college-level study of a foreign language in order to be considered eligible for teacher certification.

Additional Information
Please contact one of the following:
- Center for Science, Mathematics, and Technology Education at 516-632-7075;
- The appropriate science departmental advisor as noted above; or
- SPD’s Assistant Dean at N223 SBS Building, SUNY at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, NY 11794-4310 or call 516-632-7055.
Master of Arts in Teaching: Foreign Languages: German or Russian

The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT): Foreign Languages programs are designed as courses of study leading to New York State certification for teaching German/Russian in the secondary schools (grades 7-12). Offered in collaboration with the University's Department of Germanic and Slavic Languages and Center for Excellence and Innovation in Education, the MAT in German or Russian consists of 12 three-credit courses distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

Master of Arts in Teaching: German (HEGIS 1103)

German Language, Literature and Culture (15 credits)
GER 504  German Cultural History
GER 506  Advanced Stylistics

Plus, two GER graduate-level literature courses and one of the following:
GER 557  History of the German Language, or GER 539  Contrastive Structures: German-English, or GER 558  Middle High German

Professional Studies in Education (15 credits)
CEE 505  Education: Theory and Practice
CEE 565  Adolescent Growth and Development
FLA 505  Methods of Teaching Foreign Languages
FLA 506  Curriculum Development in the Foreign Language Classroom
FLA 554  Student Teaching Seminar (co-requisites: FLA 551 and 552)

Supervised Student Teaching (6 credits)
FLA 551  Supervised Student Teaching High School Grades 10-12: German Languages (co-requisites: FLA 552 and 554)
FLA 552  Supervised Student Teaching Middle School Grades 7-9: German Languages (co-requisites: FLA 551 and 554)

Written Project
Students in both degree programs will be required to complete a four-week foreign language teaching module specifically designed for the Supervised Student Teaching project.

To Apply
You are expected to have good preparation in the program language (preferably a major, or a minimum of 36 credits) with a minimum GPA of 2.75 in your overall bachelor's degree program and a minimum GPA of 3.00 in language studies. You must also demonstrate, through your application and recommendations, that you possess the temperament and disposition to be an effective teacher. It is also expected that applicants will have little or no previous course work in education or formal classroom teaching experience.

You must submit or have sent to the School of Professional Development:
- Completed MAT application with a $850 non-refundable application fee.
- Three letters of recommendation.
- Official copies of all previous college transcripts.
- Several sample papers from your undergraduate program that demonstrate level of proficiency in the program language.
- Official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (General Test).

Teacher Certification
While NYSED requires a minimum of 36 credits in the content field in order to be certified, the State University of New York at Stony Brook requires that students must have completed an undergraduate degree with a major in the content field for admission to Stony Brook's registered and approved graduate level program, the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.). The undergraduate major must be equivalent to a similar major at Stony Brook. If applicants do not possess the required major, they must present 36 credits in the content field in order to be considered for admission to the M.A.T.

In order to be recommended by SUNY Stony Brook for New York State Certification in German or Russian, grades 7-12, students will complete a minimum of fifteen additional credits in the content field at the graduate level within the degree program to fulfill the requirement of the M.A.T. Also, all students must have completed at least one year of college-level study of a foreign language in order to be considered eligible for teacher certification.

Master of Arts in Teaching: English

(HEGIS 1501) The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT): English is a course of study leading to New York State certification for teaching English in the secondary schools (grades 7-12). This program is offered in collaboration with the University's Department of English and Center for Excellence and Innovation in Education.

Course of Study
This degree program consists of 36 credits, distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis. Unless otherwise noted, each course is worth three credits.

English Language and Literature (18 credits)
Course selection will be determined by the student advisor. Students who have academic deficiencies in English linguistics and/or did not complete an advanced analytical composition course will be required to include courses that specifically address these deficiencies. These courses will be part of the 18 credits selected to satisfy this requirement.

Graduate Degree Programs

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies

(HEGIS 4901) The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MA/LS) is an interdisciplinary degree program that examines issues and themes in the arts and humanities, social and behavioral sciences, and natural and applied sciences. The program is offered primarily to adult students who seek educational enrichment and professional development on a part-time evening basis. The MA/LS does not specifically serve as a prerequisite for a more advanced degree.

Course of Study

This degree program consists of 11 three-credit courses, distributed among the areas listed below. Credit requirements for each area or section appear in parenthesis.

Liberal Studies Core (12 credits)
The Liberal Studies courses offered for this semester are designated by ▲ and can be found on pages 34-49 of this bulletin:
- Arts and Humanities Liberal Studies (AH/LS), 3 credits
- Social and Behavioral Sciences Liberal Studies (SB/LS), 3 credits
- Natural and Applied Sciences Liberal Studies (NS/LS), 3 credits
- Any additional Liberal Studies course, 3 credits

Thematically-Related Cluster (18 credits)
Cluster courses for the MA/LS may be selected, as appropriate, from among the University's graduate offerings and are related by theme or subject. Those courses that are of special interest to MA/LS degree students are described in the SPD Bulletin.

Students develop their own cluster with guidance and approval of an SPD academic advisor. Sample cluster titles will be discussed at orientation. Call 516-632-7050 to schedule an appointment.

MA/LS Project Seminar (3 credits)
Students are required to submit a paper or project, usually related to their cluster area, that demonstrates the ability to develop ideas and use analytical skills at the master's level. Students admitted to the MA/LS degree program must meet this requirement through a three-credit project seminar (CED 595). Several sections of this seminar will be offered each semester.

Prerequisite: Satisfactory completion of 9 of the 12-credit liberal studies requirement.

Teacher Certification

For the MA/LS: The MA/LS currently meets the master's degree requirement for permanent certification in all areas except those related to pupil personnel service and educational administration. This requirement will be affected by new changes in teacher certification. Advisement on teacher certification (particularly how individual SPD courses may satisfy teacher certification requirements) must be obtained by either writing or calling:

Office of Teaching
NYS Education Department (NYSED)
Albany, NY 12230
Telephone: (518) 474-3901

For advisement relating to prior approval of courses for certification purposes and forms for alternate route filing, you may contact your local BOCES (Nassau, 516-997-8700; Western Suffolk, 516-549-4900; Eastern Suffolk, 516-289-2200) or the New York City Board of Education if you reside in the city.

For the MAT: Advisement for students interested in certification through SPD's Master of Arts in Teaching programs may be obtained from the program directors (listed on the following pages by program) or through SPD's teacher certification office:

Teacher Certification
N223 SBS Building
SUNY Stony Brook
Stony Brook, NY 11794-4310

To Apply

1. Attend an on-campus group orientation session, at which time all degree requirements will be outlined along with your course of study. To schedule an appointment, call 516-632-7050.

2. Submit a completed application and non-refundable $50 application fee at the orientation.

3. Bring a sealed official copy of your transcript to the orientation showing that a bachelor's degree has been awarded. If you cannot bring your transcript to the orientation, please arrange to have it sent to the School of Professional Development prior to the orientation. If your transcript is not submitted prior to or at the orientation, your admission status will be that of a non-matriculating (GSP) student until a copy of your official transcript is received.

If your official transcript indicates an undergraduate cumulative GPA below 2.75, you will be considered for provisional admission. Provisionally admitted part-time students must achieve a 3.00 after attempting six graduate credits (applicable to their program) at Stony Brook. Full-time students (12 or more credits) must achieve a 3.00 after their first semester. If a 3.00 GPA is not achieved as above, students normally will not be permitted to re-enroll.

4. Submit Immunization Record (see insert) to the Director of Student Health Services.

Telephone: 516-632-7055.
By providing courses at night, on weekends, and on-line, SPD makes it possible for working professionals to pursue part-time graduate study at Stony Brook. SPD students take the same courses, learn from the same distinguished faculty, and earn the same degree credit as their full-time counterparts.

In addition to master's degree programs in teaching, liberal studies, and professional studies, SPD offers ten Advanced Graduate Certificate (AGC) programs, including a new certificate in Operations Research and two post-graduate programs in school district administration. If you would like to acquire a graduate credential but are not quite sure that you're ready to begin work toward a master's degree, consider enrolling in an Advanced Graduate Certificate program. With the help of our academic advisors, you can plan a course of study to earn certificate credits which can also be applied toward a Stony Brook master's degree.

For registration, advising or course information, contact SPD at 516-632-7050.
One of the major issues challenging SPD this year is our expansion into new curricula. This past spring the Advanced Graduate Certificate (AGC) in Operations Research was approved. And, as I write this column, we are awaiting completion later this week of the Site Review for our new Master of Arts in Teaching/Biology. This is the last step prior to its approval. Our Electronic Extension Program (EEP) is growing by leaps and bounds. This is also true for our contracted off-campus graduate programs with six Long Island Teachers Centers and with the New York City United Federation of Teachers (UFT). In fact, it is in the area of Teacher Education where the greatest strides are being made as SPD plays a major role in the re-accreditation of Stony Brook’s Teacher Education Programs.

If you are thinking about becoming a teacher, now is the time to contact SPD’s Teacher Certification Officer, Dr. Marvin Gluckner, in order to determine the proper course of action. Please be assured that he, as well as the entire staff of SPD and its Dean are here to help you with your important career education choices. It’s the reason for SPD and why we have all chosen to work in the rewarding field of lifelong learning.

In closing, have a great term. I am confident that you will profit from the opportunity of studying with us at Stony Brook.

With best wishes,

Paul Jay Edelson, Dean
