

Sept. 26, 2012

September Photos

In this issue's photo gallery, ALANA presents a fashion extravaganza as the theatre department prepares a Holmesian thriller, students Rock the Vote as others discover study-abroad opportunities, and we pause to remember 9-11 as 400-plus raise suicide awareness. If you would like to submit photos of timely activities for future issues, email pictures with a brief caption to proffice@oswego.edu.

Half-million-dollar project part of Race to Top

A team of education faculty has received just over $550,000 in Race to the Top funding for an intensive teacher preparation program in high-need schools that also will enhance the college's model of undergraduate teacher education. Read more >

Community to discuss 'innovative aging'

The Central New York health services, human services and higher education communities will gather Oct. 11 at a symposium at the SUNY Oswego Metro Center examining the challenges of aging and innovative approaches to easing the process.

Read more >

College to present 'Sherlock Holmes' play

Suspense and intrigue will greet theatregoers for "Sherlock Holmes: The Final Adventure" as a student cast and veteran director bring to life the brilliant detective, his sidekick and a savvy love interest. Read more >

Oswego wins approval to offer second engineering degree

The state Education Department last week gave SUNY Oswego the go-ahead to offer a new bachelor's degree program in electrical and computer engineering. Read more >

People in Action

In this issue, read about faculty and staff members presenting concerts and papers, publishing articles and exhibiting artwork. Read more >

Calendar Highlights

Wednesday, Sept. 26

- No classes: Yom Kippur
- ALANA cultural movements

Friday, Sept. 28

- ALANA dinner and dessert reception

Saturday, Sept. 29

Spotlight

Carolina Ilie puts front and center her students' hands-on engagement with wonders, rigor of physics — in this issue's Spotlight.

Announcements

- SEFA asks campus community to dig deep toward \$40K goal
- Steinkraus Lecture to feature expert in philosophy of mind
- City's merchants, museums to welcome college students
- Police Report

- Cruisin' the City Part 2
- Steinkraus Lecture: "Is Self-Knowledge Special?"

Monday, Oct. 1

- Donor recognition ceremony
- International education talk

Wednesday, Oct. 3

- Housing Fair

Sunday, Oct. 7

- Skype concert: Serdce from Belarus

Monday, Oct. 8

- Columbus Day Open House

Wednesday, Oct. 10

- Concert: Symphony Syracuse Chamber Players
- Spanish film: "The Motorcycle Diaries"

Thursday, Oct. 11

- Community forum on innovative aging
- Theatre preview: "Sherlock Holmes: The Final Adventure"

For details, see SUNY Oswego Events.

---

Web Resources

- Research News
- Artswego
- Athletics
- Student Blogs
- Recent Milestones
- Faculty Assembly
- Employment Opportunities
- Campus Update Archives
- SUNY Oswego Home Page

Action Items

- Submit news
- RSS news feeds
- Subscribe

Follow SUNY Oswego

