Ain't It A Grand And Glorious Feeling

Lyric by
P.G. WODEHOUSE

Music by
JEROME KERN

Some days are b—days, but some—times, there come—days When your luck's in from the start.

Days when the Jinx doesn't drive to the drinks,—And Old Man Trouble has a heart,—When Fate doesn't wait 'round the corner with a brick, And your stock goes up to par,—Things aren't this way very much, but say! Oh joy! Oh Boy! when they are.

TWO SELECTIONS FROM "HAVE A HEART" JEROME KERN'S MUSICAL HIT

You Said Something.

Words by JEROME KERN and P. G. WODEHOUSE.

Refrain. Meno mosso.

You said something when you said you love me, Oh, but I wonder for how long it will be. If you find some-day, you've altered your mind. It'll be forgiving, but simply could not go on living. Dear. Girls much prettier you will meet by the fires. Men much handsomer you'll meet by the score. Will you regret you never met them before? You said something when you said you love me. But there. Just as you used to be so sweet and fair. You stand and gape at me. Your form is girlish in its slender nose. You've got a mother's smile of tenderness. I hear your laugh. It's like an April morn. I see you weep. A tiny pearl is born. I breathe your
