Moderato

Early, early in the morning, Just as day begins a-dawning, And you're just as great big men of high positions, Gambling men and politicians, Merrily they sleepy as can be,
while the hours away,

Lazy, la-zily you wander,
When the morning light is beaming,

Looking for some place to ponder, When a squeeaky, sneaky voice cries:
And all Chinatown is dreaming, Hearts of sorrow on the morrow—
