spite my manner cold, They flirt outrageously. They never seem to hear, And no attention pay.

smirk and smile, and sigh, Before me they appear, And goo-goo's greater grow; They wink the other eye; And when I try to pass them by They whisper shyly in my ear. spoken when I say "Bonjour" "Good-day" They shyly, shyly make reply. ("They All Do")

REFRAIN

Alma, sweet Alma, Oh! where do you live?
What is your 'phone, dear? the number please give.

Alma, I'll ring you! and then I say "Dear" wedding-ring is the only ring that Alma can hear!
