Moderato

I had a girl, not very
Her eyes were sad, that day we long ago, Far away on a tropical shore,

I had a said "Good bye," When she told me "I know you'll forget,
What love you

girl, out where the roses grow,
On the road that had, just like a rose will die."

And I thought I

tanee girl
Just to fill her eyes with love for me,
Long to see that old pagoda gate,

She wanted me to stay, that day I sailed
I know she's dreaming there, 'mid roses red,

It's a Song!

It's even more than a Song!

It has the same effect on one as does a ray of sunshine after a storm.

It has all the qualities that go to make up a real ballad and it's by CLAIRE VAN LYNDEN; this in itself is more than a recommendation; it's an obligation of true merit.

Play the thematic one time, then order a copy the next time you are downtown.

Some dealers may be out of it, so if that case arises, tell them to order it for you, or send fifteen cents to us direct.

It's good! It's Very Good!

IT'S GREAT!!!
