My Fairytale Ending

Once upon a time and Happily ever after
Isn’t that what they teach us as kids
The good guy always wins
And the hero gets the girl
So why when we get older
Is it not like that
The stories they read us
Never explain that the real world hurts
And that sometimes the bad guy wins
Because the man we thought was good
Is drunk in some house
Beating his wife
Or that once upon a time
Doesn’t end happily
Because the prince that’s supposed to save the girl
Is having sex with the other girl down the street
Not caring about the one waiting for him
Why don’t the parents and teachers
Try to prepare us for heart break
So that when the happily ever after Doesn’t come when expected
We know how to handle it
When the bad guy actually beats the good guy
We finally realize life isn’t how they taught us

by Larro White