

When You Look at Me

By Katie Mahlum

When you look at me

What do you truly see?

A guiding tall tale or pure fact?

Come to me

With your heart full of wonder

And ask me :

When you look at me

What do you truly see?

I may surprise you

I may anger you

Or I may be the person you long to seek

Would we walk and talk the same?

Would we have walked a similar or a different path?

When I look at you

What do I truly see?
