Dear Old Dixie Moon

Lyric by HARRY D. KERR

Music by
GEO. J. HAYES

Moderato

When the world's asleep,
Memories return,

Down in Dixie shines a harvest moon;
With a love that's long-ing thro' the years;

rising o'er the hill,
looking plead-ing-ly,

And it brings me back to nights in June, down yon-der.
Two blue eyes a-smil-ing thro' the tears, down yon-der.

CHORUS
p Slowly and with much expression

Somewhere there's a Dixie moon a-shining, Shining down the trail we used to go;

Some where there's a l o n e - l y heart a-pining,

Pining for the love we used to know; Dixie moon, the years have all been dreary, And the world to me seems out of tune; So tell her with your beams, she'll ever in my dreams, Dear old Dixie moon.
