Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a series of chords in the treble clef, while the left hand plays a simple bass line in the bass clef. The tempo is marked 'Moderato' and the dynamics begin with a forte (f) marking.

When the world's a - sleep, and the shad - ows creep,
 Mem - o - ries re - turn, mem - o - ries that burn,

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The piano part includes a p (piano) dynamic marking. Handwritten notes in purple ink are visible above and below the staves.

Down in Dix - ie shines a har - vest moon; I can see it still,
 With a love that's long - ing thro' the years; Seems that I can see,

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. Handwritten notes in purple ink are visible above and below the staves.

ris - ing o'er the hill, And it brings me back to nights in June, down yon - der.
 look - ing plead - ing - ly, Two blue eyes a - smil - ing thro' the tears, down yon - der.

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a poco rit. (poco ritardando) marking. Handwritten notes in purple ink are visible above and below the staves.
