A SONG FOR THE MILLIONS!

I know you'll be glad to welcome his 1915 song hit "Loveland Days"—It's just about the most "catchy" song he's ever written, and in that easy swinging march tempo that is in style right now. "Loveland Days" is already a stage hit with many of the big Vaudeville acts, but by Fall we expect it to be a song "craze" from Coast to Coast, for it certainly has that wonderful "something" that we simply can't resist. "Loveland Days" is an ideal song for home, because you can all sing and enjoy it, and I know you want every song written by W. R. Williams—because he is one of the few writers who touches the right spot in our hearts. Be sure and get your copy from your local dealer, and if he's "just out"—drop a line to Will Rossiter—he's always glad to hear from you and always glad to send you his big Mail-Order catalog of "Special Bargains" and Free Premiums.

Guess most of you know W. R. Williams and his many songs. He writes the "home" kind of songs—the kind that live. You remember his song "I'd Love to Live in Loveland with a Girl Like You"—you remember that dainty little song "When the Moon Plays Peek-a-boo"—his great Indian song "Napanee"—his ballads "You Were All I Had", "When I Met You Last Night in Dreamland"—and hundreds of others—and so

The Prettiest Little Song in Years.

About once in every twenty years or so, some song is written that startles the world—Nobody knows "how it happened or whence it came"—but it gets here just the same. Some songs are "made" by the Publishers spending thousands of dollars to boom and push them just like "Patent Medicine"—but others "just happen"—and work their own way into our hearts without any of us knowing or realizing anything about the strange phenomena. This new song "You're The Dawn of a Perfect Day"—is one of this kind—born of an inspiration it blooms and blossoms for us all, creeping silently (as it were) into our hearts, bringing us at all times peace and consolation. This song appeals strongly to those of refined taste—the lyric is perfect and the melody is both restful and beautiful, and no home collection will be complete without this song:—To have a copy in your home means you understand and appreciate refinement, and we suggest if this song appeals to you as it does to us, that you send a copy to some friend who maybe has not heard from you in a long, long time. By doing that we will all feel better. Life is short and fleeting—so we should do these little things as we go along. This song is published in many keys—for all instruments, solos, etc., quartettes and bands—

"You're The Dawn of a Perfect Day" will live till the end of time.

A Beautiful Song for Those of Culture and Artistic Taste.

"THE WEARY BLUES"
Tempo a la Weary

The musical score is written for piano in B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of staves. The first system begins with a forte (f) dynamic and includes a 'Tempo a la Weary' instruction. The second system features a 'Cantabile' section marked mp (mezzo-piano) and includes an 'ad lib' (ad libitum) section with a repeat sign. The third system continues the melodic and harmonic development. The fourth system concludes with a first ending (marked '1') and a second ending (marked '2') that leads to a final chord marked fz (forzando) and 'Fine.'.

"STRING BEANS BLUES"

First system of musical notation for "STRING BEANS BLUES". The piece is in B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The right hand features a complex, fast-moving melody with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The left hand provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes. Dynamics include mf (mezzo-forte) and cresc (crescendo). A sfz (sforzando) marking is present in the right hand.

Second system of musical notation for "STRING BEANS BLUES". The right hand continues its intricate melodic pattern, while the left hand maintains the harmonic support. The notation includes various accidentals and articulation marks.

Third system of musical notation for "STRING BEANS BLUES". This system includes a first ending bracket labeled "1" and a second ending bracket labeled "2". The right hand has a sfz marking. The piece transitions to the next section, "SHIP WRECK BLUES!", which begins with a mp (mezzo-piano) dynamic.

"SHIP WRECK BLUES!"

Fourth system of musical notation for "SHIP WRECK BLUES!". The right hand features a more melodic and less technically demanding line compared to the first section. The left hand continues with a steady accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation for "SHIP WRECK BLUES!". The right hand continues with a melodic line, and the left hand provides harmonic support with chords and single notes.

Sixth system of musical notation for "SHIP WRECK BLUES!". This system includes a first ending bracket labeled "1" and a second ending bracket labeled "2". The right hand has a sfz marking. The piece concludes with a final chord in the right hand.

"THE LONG LOST BLUES"

The musical score is written for piano in a key of three flats (B-flat major or D-flat minor) with a 3/4 time signature. It consists of seven systems of two staves each. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system includes a mezzo-forte (mp-f) dynamic marking. The fourth and fifth systems feature various musical notations including slurs, ties, and accents. The sixth system concludes with a first ending bracket. The seventh system provides a second ending, marked with a double bar line and the instruction "D. S. al Fine" (Da Segno al Fine), followed by a final chord.

FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN'S BEAUTIFUL BALLAD "MY SHIP O' DREAMS"

Of course you know Francis X. Bushman—everybody does, because he is the most popular romantic photoplay actor in the world. His millions of friends admire and love him for his artistic work, and are delighted to have a copy of his own song "MY SHIP O' DREAMS". Mr. Bushman told me in confidence, he gets so many letters from admiring friends that he does not get time to answer, even though he'd gladly write each one in person, and gladly shake them by the hand—for I assure you, I've never met an artist who appreciates your friendship as much as does this handsome fellow Francis X. Bushman. It was owing to the fact that he's ever thinking of you, that this inspiration came to him. 'Twas at the close of a long day "acting and playing" for you, he sank into his armchair—almost exhausted, and as he gazed into the burning embers, this wonderful picture passed before his eyes—the picture of all his friends:—He was standing, as it were, at the "Helm of my Ship o' Dreams" and in his mind's eye you were all there before him, and so, dear friends, our friend Francis X. Bushman is trying to speak to you personally, through his poem "MY SHIP O' DREAMS". He wants your friendship and loves it, and freely admits that without you he would not be the success that he is to-day. Francis X. Bushman will tell you as he told me, he owes his success to his admiring friends. What more can he say? Mr. Bushman is at the top of his chosen profession, and with conscientious hard work and continual study intends to hold that position, and I can truthfully tell you his life's ambition is to hold your friendship and deserve it. I have been in the Publishing business for over thirty years—and this song "MY SHIP O' DREAMS" is the surprise of my career. I have never known any one man to have so many loyal friends as has Mr. Bushman, and they are all sending for his song "MY SHIP O' DREAMS". They seem to be delighted at the opportunity offered, because they know and feel it's a personal message of "good fellowship" from him. I assure you, Mr. Bushman feels you are doing him a personal favor in having a copy of his song "MY SHIP O' DREAMS", written by him, in your home to sing and play to your friends. Long live Francis X. Bushman and "MY SHIP O' DREAMS", so say we all of us.

THIS MEANS YOU. To My Friends--

Not in the past twenty-five years has there been such a big song hit as "Tipperary". The newspapers and magazines are all talking about these "Tipperary" songs all over the world. First it was the old English one revived by the English armies singing it (when off duty) and now it's this one—"I'M A LONG WAY FROM TIPPERARY"—made in "U. S. A."—and is being sung right now by more professionals than any other song in America. It has the most wonderful

"swing" to the music in the chorus that you ever heard—you simply can't resist its haunting strain, and when it comes to up to the minute dance music—the Dance Orchestras declare this "Tipperary" is the biggest hit they have ever had. We want every good American to sing and play this American "Tipperary" for their friends to hear and to help us show the world that we as Americans don't need imported goods—are you with us?

These are both wonderful songs. Your Home Collection is not complete without them. If your local dealer can't supply you—send your order direct to
