China, We Owe A Lot To You

Words by HOWARD JOHNSON

Music by MILTON AGER

Allegro moderato

PIANO

VOICE

Till ready

When I woke up the other morn, I found a new Republic

Now, China we all realize The magic of your dreamy

had been born, There was to be democracy in China;

almond eyes, 'Tis plain to see our crock-er-y is China;

We congratulate her, Ev'ry cup and saucer,

But we know old China, too,

All our Broadway Johns and Janes

Could'n't do without your bamboo canes,

Now her freedom's won,

Tho' you're weak in song,

We all know your tea is strong.

CHORUS

Chin-a, far out near Asia Minor, No country could be finer beneath the
You gave us silk to dress our lovely women,

'Twas worth the price,
And when we couldn't get po-ta-toes, you gave us rice.
We mix chop su-ey with your chop sticks, You've taught us quite a few tricks we never knew.

We take our hats off to one thing we've seen, Your laundries keep our country clean, China,

We owe a lot to you.
Stirring Songs of Love and War

“If I Had A Son for Each Star in Old Glory”

Here’s a MOTHER’S song of patriotism that is setting the U. S. A. afame. It is the prize song of the war. Millions—from Maine to California—are singing it. It is doing its bit by helping recruit regiments for Uncle Sam. Get this song today and enlist your voice for Old Glory. It’s a stirring march and a corking one step.

“I Called You My Sweetheart”

“Oh, for a love ballad that is different”—cries the public. Here it is. Stars for eyes, roses for cheeks—get this great love song and learn how the angels make sweethearts in Heaven. Its melody is delightfully different. It’s a tonic for the blues and a ticket straight thru to Loveland. Try it.
