CHORUS

Cle-o-pa-tra has a Jazz Band in her castle on the Nile,
Every night she gave a jazz dance in her queer Egyptian style;
She won Mark Anthony with her syncopated harmony.

And while they played, she swayed,
She knew she had him all the while,
In the shadow of the Pyramids under the Egyptian moon,
Asphinx was looking on and said, 'there'll be a wedding soon,'

But the real historic scandal was, Cleo lost her sandal, as she Brutus stabbed poor Julius Caesar, because he tried to please her, as she danced to the strains of the Egyptian Jazz-Band tune.

Cleo-pa-tra had a tune.
"OVER THERE" $25,000 00 SONG 100 HIT

Soldiers, sailors, and citizens made it popular. They fight to it. They march to it. Sing it. Whistle it. Talk it. That's why we paid $25,000 to Geo. M. Coan, who wrote it. It's the highest price ever paid for a song, but "Over There" is worth it. Don't guess at the words and melodies of these smashing songs! Get from your dealer today your copies for your piano; or records and rolls for your talking-machine or player-piano.

"Over There"
The feeling of America for her soldiers in France is sounded and spoken in this rousing war song. It has tickled the ears of more than a million women who are now singing it; it has stirred the hearts and fired the enthusiasm of millions who have heard it.
