Colleen, Colleen, fairest of flowers on this Isle of Green, Colleen, Colleen, skies lose their beauty when your eyes are seen. Here in my breast, safe is a nest, Where all the love that you give me may rest— Ah hear me sigh!

when you are nigh! My heart is speak-ing and looks can't de-ny.

Col-leen, Col-leen, love is a world in which you are the Queen!
Colleen, Colleen, as thou I love you, so calm and serene

Flowers and trees, birds on the breeze,

All know your beauty and seem ill at ease—Others there be,

I only see! One little Colleen, in this world for me!
