I had a big surprise today While in a ten-cent photo play, I really I'd like to meet that movie man, I want to shake him by the hand, I want to

I saw my old home town way down in Dixie land It was simply grand, Just to sit right there, and tell him that he wrote a grand scenario, He knew where to go, Plain as day upon the goat, On the scenes of by-gone days, Made me yearn to return to the land and people, screen, Hex-a-ki-ah can be seen, Lit-tle Mose on his toes, looking at the camera,

I will love always, I even saw the same old school, Where I learned the golden rule, Near-ly spoiled the scene, I saw the cot-ton white as foam, I saw my home sweet home, Down where the Swan-ee River flows—I want to be there—cotton blossom grows—I want to see there—My little sister Flo', keepin' time with Uncle Joe,

Singing a song and raggin' on his old banjo—I see my dear old Mother—Oh, Lord-y, Lord-y, Lord-y, how I love her, When the birds are sing-ing in the wild wood—My happy childhood—

—Comes back once more—My heart is sore,—That's why I'm go-ing back where they care for me—

Every night they say a little prayer for me—Down where the Swan-ee River flows—
