DROWSY BABY
Lyric by J. WILL CALLAHAN  (A HUSHING SONG)  LEE S. ROBERTS
Adapted from Gabriel Morel's "Norwegian Cradle Song"
Price, 60 cents

This number may be had for Player Piano and Talking Machine

LEE S. ROBERTS, INC.
G. SCHIRMER, INC., N. Y.—Sole Selling Agents
Drowsy Baby
A Hushing Song
Adapted from Gabriel Morel's "Norwegian Cradle-Song"

Lyric by J. Will Callahan

Moderato

Sleep, drowsy

Voice

Piano

Sleep, drowsy baby, slumber and rest, Each little song-bird is safe in the nest,

Copyright, 1920, by G. Schirmer Play-time is over, so cuddle to sleep. Each twinkling star that shines afar Will lend its tender gleams To light your happy dreams, While fair hands from Drowsy-land Will bear you in your flight Across the realm of night.
a tempo

Sleep, drowsy baby, slumber and rest, Each little song-bird is p a tempo

safe in the nest, Down over meadows long shadows creep, Play-time is

rall. a tempo

o-ver, so cud-dle to sleep; And when the morn-ing breaks, When we

rall. a tempo

see the gold-en sun, And all the world a-wakes, Just to sing that night is done, And Moth-er's drow-sy babe like the bird can leave the nest, But now, dear, it's sleep-time, so slum-ber and rest. Sleep, drow-sy ba-by, slum-ber and rest, Each lit-tle song-bird is safe in the nest, Down o-ver mead-ows long shad-ows creep. Play-time is o-ver, so cudd-ly to sleep.

PLEASE
By Lee S. Roberts
and J. Will Callahan writers of—
Smiles
Patches
Nailo
Montezuma

A ballad fox-trot with a rare melody

Price, 60 cents

LEE S. ROBERTS, INC.
G. SCHIRMER, INC., N. Y.
Sole Selling Agents