(Down On The Farm)

Moderato

Look me o-ver, Look me o-ver,
Ain't I look-ing great?
All tanned up and
You don't don your

In the ev'n-ing, In the ev'n-ing,
When the clock strikes nine,

Be-a-ty thing,
 Been a-way from town since Spring, I just wan-der'd back to na-ture,
Been a-way from town since Spring.

But you start your night's re-pose. You don't need a sleep-ing pow-der,

ev'n-ing clothes,
 Every thing,

Liv'd down on the farm;
 Did I get my mon-ey's worth? (Say)
One, two, three, you're out;

It's the great-est thing on earth
You get up next morn at five
Might-y glad to be a-live.

CHORUS

Early in the morning.
Down on the farm.
Where you can hear the rooster crow.

watch the flowers grow, (So pretty.) Ramble round the meadow Sweet with pearly dew, And all the little birdies say "Good Morning" to you Your very oldest clothes are plenty good enough to wear; Seven years behind the styles but you don't

Throw away your ties and collars, Gee! it's worth a million dollars,
Walk four miles to carry water, Just to please the farmer's daughter,
Where's my breakfast? that's the question, Never heard of indigestion,
