Never Made Anyone Wise

You all remember that proverb of old,
Doctors will tell you that sleeping is great,
Time and again,
But they themselves

You've heard it told, That early to bed and early to rise Will make you Will stay up late The prophets of old were all very wise Still they learned wealthy, healthy and wise; I thought I'd try it to see if it works, from the stars and the skies; Take your inventors, the men with ideas,

And I stopped roaming about,
I went to sleep at ten,

No-tice the hours they keep,
They stud-y and they toil,

Six found me up again,
But it's all wrong I found out,
Burn up the mid-night oil,
While all the world is a sleep.

REFRAIN

Earl-y to bed, and earl-y to rise,
Will make you

strong, but won't make you wise,
Earl-y each night, out goes the light,

Then while you're nappin', you miss the things that happen;

Gently with much expression

A rose-bud smiled on a sun-beam, And the sun-beam kissed the rose. And they both had the same sweet day dream That a soul full of sunshine knows.
