Poco Andante

Come into the garden of roses, dear, And
The roses that bloom in the garden, dear, Must stand where the sunbeams fall, Sweet whether and fade, some day, But

Perfume a rising, like incense pure,
Time only adds to the rose of love.

One who is fairer than all!
Charm that can never decay.

Largo

Beautiful garden of roses,
Kiss'd by the golden dew.

Each pretty flower discloses

The Garden of Roses
Virtues I find in you. White means your soul so pure, dear. Red is your love most true.

Largamente

You are my garden of beautiful roses. My own rose, my own rose, that's you.
