(The Missouri Waltz)

Arr. for piano by

FREDERIC KNIGHT LOGAN

INTRO. Slowly and dreamily

Hush-a-bye, ma baby, slumber-time is comin’ soon; Rest yo’ head upon ma breast while Mammy hums a tune; The sand-man is callin’ where

Dreamily

shadows are fallin’, While the soft breezes sigh as in days longgone by.

'Way down in Missouri where I heard this melody,

When I was a Pick-a-ninny on ma Mammy's knee; The darkies were hummin'; Their banjos were strummin' So sweet and low.

Strum, strum, strum, strum, strum, Seems I hear those banjos playin' once again, Hum, hum, hum, hum, That same old plaintive strain.

Interlude
Hear that mournful melody. It just haunts you the whole day long. And you wander in dreams back to Dixie, it seems. When you hear that old-time song.

1st Mo.

Hush-a-by, ma baby, go to sleep on Mammy's knee, Journey back to Dixie-land in dreams again with me; It seems like yo' Mam-my was there once again, And the dark-ies were strum-min' that same old refrain.

'Way down in Mis-sou-ri where I learned this lull-a-by, When the stars were blink-in' and the moon was climbin' high, And I hear Mam-my Cloe, as in days long ago Sing-in' hush a - bye.
When You're In Love
