Alexander Cooper, was a colored trooper
Brave old Alexander, he could understand her
He knew

regiment

Dinah Lee he marched away was really blue
Bands were gaily playing, colored Yet he kept on smiling, while his folks were swaying troop went filling

On Emancipation Day
Proudly down the avenue
From the crowd,
On the pier,

Dinah Lee so proud
Everyone could hear
Hollered to her sweetie good and loud.
Dinah calling to her sweetie dear.
Chorus

Good-bye Alexander, Good-bye, honey boy
Dressed up in that uniform, you fills my heart with joy
You aint born for moppin' boy, you sure can laugh.

But you left that window open and they got you in the draft, Alexander I'll save my lovin' for you, I'll be waitin' like Poor Butterfly.

So get busy with that gun and don't come back here till you've won
If you want to see me grin, bring me a pig-foot from Berlin

Alexander goodbye.
