Un-cle Sam is now fixed up for war. Un-cle Sam is an-gry to the core.
We have watch'd you make your dirty fight. Watch'd you as you trampled ev'-ry right.

For that war mad bull-y o'er the sea. Dares to murder people of the U. S. A.
Trampled help-less peo-ple heath your heel. Now the hand of pow-er you shall sure-ly feel.

My country is a land Of the no-ble true and brave. And tho' your My country is a land Where the hearts of men beat true. And when you sub-marine sharks may fill the whole wide o-cean G e r m a n y you'll have to pay.

mur-der the peo-ple of this grand old na-tion You'll get what's com-ing to you.

CHORUS

Good-bye Ger-man-y so long Ger-man-y You’ve brought the eagle down on your head_

For you’ve riled old Uncle Sam and the people of his land; From east to west you’ll find your foes and way down yonder where the cotton grows the people are shouting for war.

And they’re counting time on you When Uncle Sam goes after you the When Sammy’s boys go out to war the whole big world knows you are thru So good-bye Ger-man-y. whole big world knows what they’re for So good-bye Ger-man-y.

THE BIG WALTZ-BALLAD SUCCESS OF THE YEAR

“SOMEWHERE A HEART IS BREAKING AND CALLING ME BACK TO YOU”

You will note the melody of this beautiful ballad is written by Leo Friedman, composer of such big hits as “Meet Me To-Night in Dreamland,” “Let Me Call You Sweetheart,” “When I Dream of Old Erin.” Mr. Friedman thinks this new song is his best effort and the way the public is buying it indicates that Mr. Friedman’s judgment in this matter is equally as good as his melody. It is truly a wonderful seller and a copy should be in every home.

CHORUS

Some-where a heart is break-ing And call-ing me back to you,

Fond memo-ries a-wak-ing Each happy hour we knew.

I hear a voice so ten-der Mak-ing my dreams come true;
