Goodbye, My Love, Goodbye

Lyric by GEO. GRAFF Jr.

Music by ERNEST R. BALL

Moderately, with expression

Mine is a love of a thousand years,

Flowers may bloom, I will never know,

Born just to live all for thee, dear;

Stars can not shine more for me, dear;

And tho' today you can say: "Goodbye,"

Some day you'll hunger for me,

both love so,

They'll take their songs all to thee.

And tho' I'm far o'er the desert sands,
Or 'way beyond all the icy lands,
But rivers merge all into the sea,
Listening, I'll hear you calling,
Girt, dear,
Such is my love for thee.

REFRAIN

Mountains can hold me,
No oceans di-
No pow'r, when you call, Can keep me, love, from your side. Tho' years come and go, My love can not die, For life is mine, because I love thee.

Good-bye, my love good-bye. D. C.
