all their glory woodland flow'rs Creep o'er the soft Summer sky,

Touch with their silver and gold,

Fire-flies gleam-ing,
Slepy birds of love are dream-ing,

Twilight soon to Stars are peeping dusk is growing, Evening breezes touch the rustling leaves forth their gleaming, In the shadows Cupid waits to list. To the tale we unfold, Come, my sweet, and of this night of love, waiting here, dear am I.

make complete, the joy of a fond love untold.

Refrain. a tempo.

Oh! meet me in the shadows, When twilight dims the day, When the golden sun has gone to rest, In the golden west, loving time is best, For love dreams are the sweetest, When moon-beams flood the sky, Love will find its own, When we are alone, In the shadows, just you and I. Oh! I.
