Girl and boy stroll down in lover's lane,
Girl and boy were married yesterday

Bells of joy ring out a pretty strain,
In the little church across the way,

Andante espressivo

In the golden west the sun is slowly sinking,
Many years have passed and still the story lingers,
Like the summer day is drawing to a close,
While the air is heavy laden with the breath of summer borne upon the breeze,
And the memory of the day when first he

It's been told o'er and o'er since the world began

'Tis the sweetest I ever knew

It will tell of a love that's within my heart for that's just how the story goes

There is perfumed dew and it's all for you In the heart of this red, red, rose.

CHORUS

Good night, little girl, good night
I hope you get home all right,
Your kisses were fine
With each quart of wine, I thought you were single all the time,
But I'm wrong, little girl, I'm wrong
Run along, little girl, run along;
That ring on your finger tells me not to linger
Good night, little girl, good night.
