Be sure you hear it.
He said to Cassidy, go over to the brewer, For a thousand kegs of lager Two by three they marched in the dining hall, Young men and old men, and Dressed beef and naked beef, and beef with all its dresses on, So-da crack-ers, fire crack-ers, Flute played, horn pipes, gas-pipes, and Irish reels, and we danced to the music of "the beer and give it to the poor, Then go over to the butcher shop and order up a ton of meat, Be girls that were not men at all, blind men and deaf men, and men who had their teeth in pawn, limburger cheese with dresses on, Beef steaks and mistakes were down on the bill of fare, wind that shakes the barley fields," Then the piper played Old tunes, and spirit songs, so very fine, That
