"By The Old Oak Tree."

Words by GEORGE V. HOBART.  Music by MAX HOFFMANN.

CHORUS. Slow.

The dove said, "Coo! Coo! Won't you come a-long and woo, woo?" The crow said,

"Caw! Caw! You're the worst I ever saw, saw. But the rural lovers smiled with glee, For she loved he and he loved she, And they kept on a-loving just as happy as could be, By the old oak tree. The dove said tree.

"The Irish Girl I Love."

Lyric by GEO. V. HOBART.

Music by MAX HOFFMANN.

Valse lento.

1 Far off is Erin's Island far
2 I promised when I left her far rolls the sea between;

fortune grand I'd make;

But one I love is Before I came to waiting dark-eyed is my colleen!

claim her and her dear hand I'd take;

The Irish Girl I Love

The Irish Girl I Love, she's far across the Chorus.

Very Slow.

The Irish Girl I Love, she's far across the
In Erin's green my sweet colleen is waiting there for me. She's fair and sweet and true. All other girls above the shamrock of old Ireland the Irish girl I love! The love!

CHORUS:
When I gazed into your eyes so bright...

Softly a beam- ing like the stars at night.

My heart was stolen in the jungle glade.
