

Proposed Amendments to the Faculty Assembly Bylaws

Current Bylaw	Proposed Amendment (in bold, underlined print)	Rationale
Article V. Standing Committees, I. Standing Committees of the Assembly shall consist of the Academic Affairs Committee, the Academic Personnel Committee, the Curriculum Committee, the Planning and Budgeting Committee, the Academic Quality Committee, the Technology Committee, the Committee on Evaluation of Academic Administrators, the Graduate Council, and the Online Learning Committee.	Article V. Standing Committees, I. Standing Committees of the Assembly shall consist of the Academic Affairs Committee, the Academic Personnel Committee, the Curriculum Committee, the Planning and Budgeting Committee, the Academic Quality Committee, the Technology Committee, the Committee on Evaluation of Academic Administrators, the Graduate Council, and the Distance Learning Committee.	Distance Learning is the term used in the Middle States Standard 13. It is broader in scope than just online learning since it applies to any learning situation where the instructor and the student are in two different locations. The recent merger of SUNYIT and CSNE will most likely result in an increase in the number and types of courses offered by distance learning.
Article V. Standing Committees, III. I. The Online Learning Committee shall consider and make recommendations to the Assembly concerning policies, procedures, and use of resources regarding the development, support, efficacy, and quality of online learning, teaching, and training on the campus.	Article V. Standing Committees, III. I. The Distance Learning Committee shall consider and make recommendations to the Assembly concerning policies, procedures, and use of resources regarding the development, support, efficacy, and quality of distance learning, teaching, and training on the campus.	Same as above