SUNYergy, SUNY Libraries Working Together, is a quarterly publication of the Office of Library and Information Services (OLIS). In recent years, the OLIS has redoubled its efforts to implement new programs and services designed to be of value to the SUNY library community. It is hoped that these services assist the libraries and librarians in their larger mission of facilitating learning, research and scholarship. Existing OLIS publications had not, however, been designed to comprehensively describe new initiatives such as SUNYConnect or the SUNY Library Automation Migration (SLAM).

SUNYergy is distributed via email four times a year. A WWW version of the publication is posted to <http://olis.sysadm.suny.edu/sunyergergy/>. All of the text of the publication is available via the email version. Ideally, readers also access the web version of SUNYergy with its hypertext, graphics and much-more-than-ascii format.

The publication seeks to keep the SUNY community informed regarding the ongoing work of OLIS and its partners. Whether the topic is migration to a common library system, developing SUNY-wide electronic information resources, cutting-edge work with web interfaces and Z39.50 searching, SUNYergy seeks to emphasize that gestalt -- that whole greater than the sum of the parts -- achieved by SUNY librarians working together.

Tell us what you think about this new publication. What type of information should be included in SUNYergy? Please let us know by telephone (518-443-5577) or by email schumaje@slscva.sysadm.suny.edu.

Congratulations to Mr. Carey Hatch for recently being named Assistant Provost for Library and Information Services, State University of New York, System Administration. This promotion reflects work that Carey has been doing for several years now, since the retirement of Mr. Glyn Evans.

'SUNYergy, SUNY Libraries Working Together' is a publication of the State University of New York Office of Library and Information Services. The publication is sent out via email and published at <http://olis.sysadm.suny.edu/sunyergergy> four times a year (January, April, July, October).
