One of the most unique partnerships of man and animal exists in the ancient art of falconry, the sport of kings, that utilizes these fierce, powerful birds to hunt quarry.

Jonathan Wood, now a master falconer, brings over 25 years of experience to his live bird presentations. By training and studying a wide variety of raptors across America and around the world, Jonathan has been afforded a unique opportunity and insight into their behavior and habits in captivity and in the wild.

Did You Know?

Raptors have eyesight 8-10 times sharper than people.

Falcons have been electronically clocked at over 200 M.P.H. in a vertical dive.

Leadership 2000 is the series of leadership workshops offered throughout the academic year for student leaders. This program, sponsored by URSA, consists of beginning of the year leadership workshops, speakers, and transitions of officers workshops.

URSA chose to hold the fall beginning of the year leadership training program at Camp Nazareth in Woodgate, N.Y. Approximately 60 student leaders were bused about one hour north to Camp Nazareth in the Adirondacks. These student leaders shared many challenges in effective communication, group problem solving, goal setting, effective teamwork, and personal growth.

A fabulous weekend of hardwork and fun brought all who participated closer together with many memories that will last a lifetime.

Hello Everyone,

It certainly has been a fun and interesting year here at SUNY Utica/Rome. We have all had experiences that we will carry in our memories for many years to come. Fall Fest, Leadership 2000, The Children’s Holiday Party, Apocalypse, Alley Cat Thursdays, multi-cultural events, and our Wildcat sports teams have provided us with many hours of enjoyable entertainment and welcome relief from the stress of college life.

As president of the Utica/Rome Student Association I would like to extend my congratulations to the graduating class. The challenging work we have done and the knowledge that we have gained at this institution will give us the leverage that we need to meet the challenges of the next century in the work force and higher levels of education.

For those of you who remain here, to graduate in the coming years, work hard to achieve your goals just remember to have a little fun while you are at it. Take the time to enjoy those moments in life that make all the hard work worth while.

Wherever you go whatever you do keep this thought in mind...It’s nice to be important, but it’s more important to be nice.

Good Luck!

Teresa K. Burton

Club funding board is a recognized board of JRSA. The board is comprised of one representative from each of the clubs on campus. Their purpose is to oversee the club activities and put on the organization fair, wildcat weekend, and final exam study-breaks if the budget allows.
The Genesis is an approved board of URSA. The goal of our organization is to furnish the students with a photographic memory book of their college years. These past problems have led to the changes that you see this year, including free yearbooks for graduating seniors and a spring completion date.
The snowflake is a recognized URSA board. The snowflake is a daily publication to inform students, faculty, and staff of upcoming events, club and organization's meeting times, radio DJ shows, and Career Services announcements. We have undergone many changes during the 98-99 academic year, including headers, pictures, trivia question contests, theme days, and many more exciting things.
It is the SUNY Tech Programming Board that puts together most of the social and educational entertainment including Alley Cat Thursday, comedians and movies. The board is open to students' suggestions and will expand the horizons of those involved.

Sound and Light Technical Crew provides sound and lighting equipment for most of the campus activities. Such activities include: Alley Cat Thursdays, Open Mic Nights, Fall Fest, Apocalypse, as well as other events.

WCOT

WCOT is a board that is recognized by URSA. They are the campus radio station and television station. They are FCC licensed as cable FM 89.1 and AM 1590. Show formats are open, following FCC guidelines. WCOT also uses its visual capabilities for campus events both on and off campus.
SUNY Jazz is the Institute’s jazz performance ensemble. The group performs several times each semester on campus and at off campus locations such as Tiny’s jazz club. For several years the group has entertained the guests of the Institute’s annual children’s holiday party and the annual academic awards banquet. Each semester the group performs at one of the weekly “Alley Cat Thursday” programs on campus. The group is funded by URSA and it provides a creative environment for musicians to develop their skills with jazz improvisation, musicianship, and chart reading. In November, 1998, SUNY Jazz recorded its first CD album at “The Music Factory” in Rome, N.Y.
The Factory Times is a recognized board of URSA. Their purpose is to create a college newspaper for students by students.

The Student Association of Health Administrators is a club for the Health Service Management students. In addition to making its contribution to the college's social life, SAHA sponsors professional and educational events.
B.A.S.I.C.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ reach out to students to bring the Gospel of Christ and provide encouragement to those in need.

PBL

The primary function of the Black Student Union is to unite and help educate minority students through cultural, social, and academic programming activities. The BSU coordinates and sponsors an annual event in honor of Black History month and provides input with regard to minority perspectives on committees. All students are welcome to join regardless of race or national origin.

SHIMA

HIMA is the Student Health Information Management Association Club at SUNY Tech. The purpose of SHIMA is to promote health information management in school and the community and provide members with the opportunity of furthering their knowledge of HIM.
Computer Science Club

The Computer Science Club provides students with an opportunity to have a voice in the development and improvement of the academic computing facilities. An added goal of the Computer Science club is to provide a forum for exchange of ideas related in the computers science field.

VSA

The Vietnamese Student Association mission statement is to foster friendship and understanding among other ethnic groups both on and off campus and to build a firm relationship between Vietnamese students and the Utica Community by sponsoring community service, social, and cultural events.
Psychology

This club is intended for students majoring in Psychology. Its goals are to increase members' interest in, and understanding of, Psychology. Its activities include lectures on topics on Psychology and discussions on graduate school and careers. It meets bi-monthly.

ISA

The international students association is a group dedicated to bringing the many students at the college who come from other countries into contact with American students and each other. Both groups benefit from the exchange of cultures. Activities are planned occasionally to expose students to international foods and activities.
LSA serves as an advocate for the Hispanic community promoting unity, self-awareness and pride among SUNY Tech students of Hispanic and non-Hispanic heritage. LSA examines the history of Hispanic immigrants to the mainland U.S. and their contributions to American society, economy, and politics; facilitate appreciation of the diversity within the Latino community as well as identify commonalties among Latinos with regards to values, family, and language.

Ski and Snow Boarding

The Ski Club is a group of students who ski or simply want to learn. In either case, the members’ primary objective is to enjoy the snow while it lasts. Several ski trips are scheduled every winter, with at least one weekend trip to a major ski resort.
Tech Comm Club

The purpose of this club is to expand writing on campus and participate in activities and conferences related to technical communications.

Telecom

To broaden each member’s understanding of the practical side of their training, the Club sponsors trips to telecommunication facilities, research centers, and companies seeking to hire telecommunications graduates. Opportunities are provided to participate in on campus projects involving telecommunications systems and networks. Fund raising events help support these activities.
The sociology club is actively involved in bringing awareness of social issues to the campus community. The club enhances the sociology curriculum by inviting guest speakers and sharing education and vocational information with students.

The goals of the SUNY Professional Registered Nurses are to promote high quality nursing standards for registered nurses, promote nursing accountability and flexibility, empower all nurses to pursue and achieve their highest goals, and to encourage nurses to become leaders and visionaries, to develop new strategies, and help shape nursing's future.
IEEE

The Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE) is a group of special interest to students majoring in Electrical Engineering Technology, Computer Science, or Telecommunications. Among IEEE’s major goals is that of increasing students’ awareness of opportunities in these fields.

SME

The society of Manufacturing Engineers (SME) is a club of special interest to students in the technical disciplines, but open to all students in manufacturing processes. The stated purpose of SME is to provide students with an opportunity to be exposed to scientific knowledge in the field of manufacturing. As SME is one of many chapters nationwide, students are also afforded an opportunity to be a member of a national, professional organization.
The resident advisor position is a competitive position on campus with many responsibilities that they undertake. They also plan three programs a semester along with the other portions of the job such as role model, resource person, facilitator, disciplinarian, and administrative liaison. Some of the characteristics that RA's must possess include honesty, integrity, and responsibility. Being a residential advisor truly takes a special type of person.

Hall Council

Hall Council is an organization that promotes a quality living experience to residence hall students. All resident students are members of hall council and area representatives are chosen to represent these students questions and concerns. The area reps vote on the programming and the allocation of funds to benefit resident students.
American Society for Mechanical Engineers is a professionally oriented academic club emphasizing issues and programs with regard to the respective field. The primary goal of the club is to provide an atmosphere to enhance education through trips, tours, and speakers. Social events are generally planned to raise funds.

Young Hollywood: Who's Hot, Who's Not

KATE BECKINSALE, 24
The word: This subtle, sexy Brit has the right stuff, but after her small flicks (Cold Comfort Farm, The Last Days of Disco), has to get out more. What's next: Shooting The TALENTED MR. RIPLEY with Gwyneth Paltrow.

MATT DAMON, 28
The word: With Rounders, this Oscar winner has chosen greatness over gilt, (unlike Ben Affleck, who went for Armageddon). What's next: Brokedown Palace.

CLAIRE DANES, 19
The word: Still hot after tragic post-Romeo and Juliet flicks (did Polish Wedding even hit your town?). What's next: After she does kitch in The Mod Squad, Danes goes dramatic as a Thailand prisoner in Brokedown Palace.

LEONARDO DICAPRIO, 22
The word: Unsinkable. He has directed, acted, modeled, and the female 25- and-under population vying for him. What's next: Rumors aside, not American Psycho, but Danny Boyle's The Beach (for $20 mil).

TAYE DIGGS, 27
The word: Let's just say the set of How Stella Got Her Groove Back was steamy, and not only because they were shooting it in Jamaica. What's next: Shooting the rest of the up-and-comer world in Doug Swingard's Limbo.

JENNIFER LOPEZ, 28
The word: Shot-studded first movie Flirting with Disaster, and then went A-list with George Clooney in Out of Sight. And did we mention her, um, asset? What's next: A voice in the animated Antz with Woody Allen.

RYAN PHILLIPPE, 24
The word: More than a cute boy who bares his chest (I Know What You Did...), he has flacks like 54- for industry cred. What's next: Croel Intentions, with Sarah Michelle Gellar and girlfriend Reese Witherspoon.

JOAQUIN PHOENIX, 23
The word: After To Die For and U-Turn, Phoenix flies high with wish lists for troubled characters. What's next: Drama Return to Paradise and dark comedy Clay Pigeons.

KEANU REEVES, 34
The word: Oh, cool breeze over the mountains, come back to earth! Hello, Chain Reaction, Devil's Advocate... Doggera? What's next: Starring in Matrix, about a war against computers. (Uh, hello again, Johnny Mnemonic?)

CHRISTINA RICCI, 18
The word: After her sultry roles in The Opposite of Sex and Buffalo 66, no casting agent will put her in kids' clothes again. What's next: John Waters' Pecker, then Sleepy Hollow with Johnny Depp.

KATE WINSLET, 23
The word: Two Oscar nominations in her two decades of life? Not bad for an actress who could have easily been a Jane Austenite—had she not starred in you-know-what? What's next: Shooting Jane Campion's The Cement Garden with Rob Griffin.

McGwire hit his record breaking 62nd homerun on September 8th, 1998. The homer came in the bottom of the 4th inning against the Chicago Cubs' Steve Trachsel. On September 8th, 1961, Roger Maris (New York Yankees) was only on his 55th blast. Mark McGwire has accomplished a feat that no one thought was possible. Thank you Mark.

On January 16, 1998, NASA announced that U.S. Senator John Glenn, who made history 36 years ago as the first American to orbit the Earth, would fly in space again as a payload specialist on shuttle mission STS-95 October 29. Glenn will take part in a suite of experiments to study the connection between the adaptation to weightlessness and the aging process. Glenn’s selection has met with mixed reaction, as some people applaud his selection as a fitting honor for Glenn, while others decry it as an unjustified reward for a politician.

John Glenn kept busy working on a number of experiments during the mission. (NASA)

The tale of President Bill Clinton and former White House intern Monica Lewinsky rocked Washington last January when the explosive allegations of sex, perjury and obstruction of justice first surfaced. After repeated denials, Clinton did an abrupt about-face August 17 and admitted to a relationship that was "wrong." Clinton said it was time to move on, but Independent Counsel Ken Starr’s took a historic step toward impeachment proceedings by sending his report to Congress Sept. 9.
So now we all wait and see what is going to happen to this issue as it still goes on...
