I'm Sorry I Made You Cry

By N. J. Clesi
Arr. by Theodore Morse

Moderato

With feeling

Dear little girl, have I made you sad? Your lips are trembling so!
Roses enrapture my thoughts with love, You are in every rose,

Those bitter tears will drive me mad, Jealous of me I know!
And like the golden sun above, Your smile with heaven glows!

Do you believe there's another girl, Do you believe me untrue?
My soul is thrill'd when the song birds sing, I hear your voice calling me!

Tho! I have wandered in life's gay whirl, You've called me back to you.
Come let us woo like the birds in spring, Oh, listen to my plea!

REFRAIN  Slowly-with expression

I'm sorry, dear, so sorry, dear, I'm sorry I made you cry!

Won't you forget, won't you forgive? Don't let us say good bye!

One little word, one little smile, One little kiss will you try? It breaks my heart to hear you sigh, I'm sorry I made you cry! cry!

A Merica—still America—is singing these three songs.

You hear them on the ships, in the canteens, in the theatres, in the shops, on the streets, in the homes—wherever you go. It's part of America's prescription to be able to sing. Our singing daughters keep the home fires burning. Our singing sons-of-guns will lick the band! Learn to know these songs by heart. Get them today.
