Come a-long, come a-long, life is so sweet,

Gather the flow-ers that bloom at your feet; Blossoms will fade a-way ere the year's gone; Winter's be-fore us, so dreary and long.

In My Garden

When the thrushes in my garden see you come,
O they cease them for a moment and are dumb;
Then they break to song anew
For the very joy of you,—
When the thrushes in my garden see you come.

When the roses in my garden hear you nigh,
O they droop their heads a moment and are shy;
Then they break to bloom anew
For the very love of you,—
When the roses in my garden hear you nigh.
