Can't You See I Love You?

Lyric by
SEYMOUR BROWN.

Music by
NAT. D. AYER.

I've traveled here and there, I've searched most every-where, To I'm really very shy, And that's the reason why The find a girl whom I could really love, And a gift of speech is not at my command, I'm late-ly I have seen My heart's desire, my queen. She's as new too at the game, And of course my only aim Is to fair as any angel from above; But just how I'll propose to her is make it plain, so she can understand; Now if this little girl I mean would more than I can think; It has caused me sleepless nights and much dis-give me half a chance, To try and prove my love is pure and may. At last I've hit upon a plan to ture. Now tell me do you think that she would ask her for her heart and hand. And this is what I think I'll have to say. enter a thought of me? I might as well be frank, the girl is you!

REFRAIN.

"Can't you see I love you? See the love-green in my eyes!

Can't you un-derstand dear? You're the girl I i-dol-ize.

Life is sad and lone-ly, It is ver-y dear-y too. But I could be so ver-y hap-py, dear, if I had you? you."
