I'D GIVE IT ALL FOR YOU

JOHNSON'S MUSIC HOUSE
227 Central Avenue
Dunkirk, N.Y.
Pianos, Talking Machines,
String Instruments

WORDS AND MUSIC BY JOHN LOFTUS

ELIZA DOYLE SMITH
Music Publisher
29 E. Van Buren St., Chicago
"I'd Give It All For You."
FOR MALE OR MIXED

CHORUS

Tenderly

1st Tenor

If I found the end of the rainbow And all the treasure it hides (that it

2nd Tenor

Melody Soprano and Alto

If I found the end of the rainbow And all the treasure it hides

1st Bass

(Tenor)

If all of my tears turned to gladness, Still I'd not be satisfied (satisfied) If

2nd Bass

(Bass)

If all of my tears turned to gladness, Still I'd not be satisfied (satisfied) If

I had the dreams of a dreamer And if my dreams came true (dreams came true) If I owned the world but not your heart, Then I'd give it all for you (all for you) If you (all for you)

not your heart, Then I'd give it all for you (all for you) If you (all for you)
I'd Give It All For You

Words & Music by JOHN LOFTUS

Moderato With Much Expression

I had wandered a-
All the treasures I

lone in the darkness, But now all my wan-dring is found passed like flowers That blos-

past;

Like a flower that needed the sun-way,

But the wonder of you cannot fade,
shine, I have found what I've long'd for at last.
dear, You'll grow sweeter to me day by day.

REFRAIN Tenderly
If I found the end of the rainbow

And all the treasure it hides,

If all of my tears turned to gladness, Still I'd not be satisfied.

I'd Give It All For You 3
fied. If I had the dreams of a dreamer And if my dreams came true,
I owned the world but not your heart, Then I'd give it all for you.

I'd Give It All For You 3
The Peer of Irish love ballads. This song is the best that Eliza Doyle Smith has ever produced; it is truly Irish, and who, that hath music in his soul does not love Irish music? The Colleen, Killarney, Primroses and Fairies are extolled in this sweetly appealing waltz ballad.

CHORUS

He would kid 'em a-long with that whale of a song A He went racing a-long to that whale of a song And tune with a harpoon that sticks he made a record for speed

Mermaids dive down in the brine His submarine must have been green

A clever story about the well-known Jonah, the whale and the sea, with funny lines and a jingling one-step melody.

There is nothing so good for what ails you as a good laugh, and this combine of mirth and melody will fix you up all right.