Ladies I've a secret that I will confess,
Father always told me seated on his knee,
And I hope that you won't mind my forwardness, Always treat a girlie gently as can be,
Here in all my glory you behold in me,
When it comes to Daddies I must really say He

Don't you re-mem-ber the days of our child-hood Don't you re-mem-ber the heard ma-ny songs, dear Since I've been roam-ing, I've But in the gloam-ing, my songs in the wild-wood, I'd left them behind, dear, heart still belongs, dear, For of the many

Then to my mind, dear, There came a melody soft and low.
There wasn't any, Half so melodious, dear as yours.

Chorus.

It was just a song at twilight And it carried me back to you, long ago when we were sweethearts true, Then absence made my heart grow weary for you

Filled my soul with longing too, For it was just a song at twilight That made me come back to you.
