Words and Music by
BOB CARLETON

You've Now

heard all about your raggy melodies,
Ev'rything from opera down to harmony,
But ev'ryone was singing a Hawaiian strain,
Ev'ryone seemed to have it on their brain.

I've a little song that I will sing to you,
It's going to win you thru and thru.
There Yu-ka Hicky Hoo-la Do was all the craze,
Why that's the one that had 'em dazed.

ain't much to the words but the music is grand,
And you'll be singing it to beat the band.
Now object now is for something new,
Something that will appeal to you.

Here are the songs our boys sing when they march away—the choruses they sing in trench and dugout over there—the songs they'll sing when they come marching home from victory. All of them are songs of cheer, that you love to hear, and sing and play.

They are the inspiration songs of today, the memory songs of tomorrow. You will enjoy every wist of this little volume now—and in later years you will cherish it as a treasure.
