LISTEN TO THAT
DIXIE BAND

MUSIC BY GEO. L. COBB

WORDS BY JACK YELLEN

ELIZABETH MURRAY

JEROME H. REMICK & CO.

NEW YORK DETROIT.
"LISTEN TO THAT DIXIE BAND"

Words by JACK YELLEN

Music by
GEORGE L. COBB

Allegro moderato

Listen, don't you hear that drummin'? Down the street a band is comin',

Start a Dixie celebration, Take a regular vacation,

Hear the music sweet, Call a holiday,

Copyright MCMXIV by Elizabeth M. Murray & George L. Cobb, Philadelphia, Pa.
Copyright transferred MCMXV to Jerome H. Remick & Co., New York & Detroit
Tramp-in of the feet, All the air is full of rag-time
Get the band to play Mel-o-dies right from the old plan-hum-min', Some-thing 'bout that mu-sic thrills me, ta-tion, Let's go down to mam-my Jinn-y's

It's a band from Dix-ie, Hip-Hoo-ray!
For a good old Dix-ie Jub-i-lee,
Run, you lit-tle Sam-my,
Mam-my, she will feed us,

Go and get your mam-my 'Cause it's com-in'right this way.
And the band will treat us To some Southern har-mo-ny.
Listen to that Dixie band

From my home in

Dixieland,

That's the band I

love best of all,

Everybody will fall for that old bugle call,

Listen to that big bass drum,
Ain't that trom-bone blow-in' some? Oh, boy!
What is it they're play-in'? Oh, joy!
That's got 'em all sway-in'. Hurry, 'cause it's near-in',
Hear the dark-ies cheer-in' For that Dixie band.